- A Royalty statement period
- B The currency in which you will be paid
- C The title of the publication

NOTE: Any red negative numbers you may find on your statement are most likely due to books having been returned and the buyer refunded

- 1 Money earned in previous period, less any reduction due to books having been returned. This was not paid previously because it was below your minimum payment level, as defined in your contract
- 2 Royalties earned on sales of the title in this period
- 3 For internal use only
- 4 Charges against royalties for permissions, indexing, contributors' fees, and miscellaneous costs, as defined in your contract (where applicable)
- 5 Charges against royalties for any previously paid advance not yet fully recouped, as defined in your contract (where applicable)
- 6 Money to be carried forward to next royalties period because it does not meet the minimum payment level for this period, as defined in your contract, less any reduction due to books having been returned
- 7 The final payment due to you in this period, before any applicable taxes are applied (see Payment Summary)
