

INTERNATIONAL LEGAL MATERIALS[®]

Statement of Editorial Policy

International Legal Materials is a core publication of The American Society of International Law that reproduces texts of documents reflecting the broad scope and evolution of international law. The range of covered subjects has expanded from traditional topics such as international organizations, jurisdiction, maritime law and trade to include developments in fields such as electronic commerce, environmental law, human rights and war crimes jurisprudence.

International Legal Materials serves as both a bi-monthly information service and a widely recognized archive of international law documents for a diverse, global community of legal scholars, government officials, private practitioners and institutions sharing a common interest in international law. To meet the varied demands of such a readership, documents are selected from world-wide sources on the basis of their present and future legal significance. For this reason, purely political or issue-advocacy documents are usually excluded from consideration, as are draft laws not in final form or lacking a unique, lasting character.

International Legal Materials is prepared for publication in Washington, D.C. by a staff of Editors acting with both the advice of the Editorial Advisory Committee and the assistance of Corresponding Editors around the world. In order to reproduce the texts of selected documents under tight production schedules, the best available source is used, whether electronic or printed. To best ensure the quality of electronic texts, the ILM Office staff works in conjunction with official sources to correct any apparent errors.

Volume 40 reflects the full use of automated production methods designed to ensure a high-quality, standardized product. These new techniques also make possible the creation of an expanded and integrated family of International Legal Materials publications centered on the ASIL website. We look forward to announcing these products as they become available.
