

HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD

Nominations are being accepted for the History of Education Society's Outstanding Book Award. Books bearing 1995 and 1996 publication dates will be considered. The Award Committee will consider books on the history of education defined broadly to include schools, teachers, higher education, families, and a wide range of cultural and educational institutions. The winner of this award of $500 will be announced at the Society's annual meeting in the fall of 1997. Inquiries should be sent to:

Professor Anne Boylan
Department of History
University of Delaware
Newark, DE 19716

CALL FOR PAPERS

The History of Education Society will hold its annual meeting in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in October 1997 (specific dates TBA, spring issue). The Program Committee welcomes proposals for individual papers or complete sessions consisting of several papers with a chairperson and a commentator. Proposals should include the theme and conclusions of each paper (1-3 pages) and a short (1-page) vita of each presenter. Proposals are also solicited for research-in-progress roundtables, open panel discussions on areas of general intellectual interest, and informal sessions showcasing the work of new scholars. Send all proposals (4 copies) by 1 April 1997 to:

Professor John Rury
Chair, HES Program Committee
School for New Learning
DePaul University
243 S. Wabash Ave.
Chicago, IL 60604-2302

HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY
HENRY BARNARD PRIZE

The History of Education Society will award the Henry Barnard Prize in 1997 for the best graduate student essay in the history of education. Nominations by faculty, graduate advisers, department chairs, and deans, as well as self-nominations by students, are welcome. The deadline for submissions is 15 April 1997. Essays should be no longer than 25 pages exclusive of notes. The winner will be invited to deliver her/his paper at the fall 1997 meeting of the History of Education Society and to publish the essay in the History of Education Quarterly.

The Prize Committee will define history of education broadly to include work on schools, teachers, higher education, families, and a wide range of cultural and educational institutions. The Society reserves the right not to award the prize if the Committee makes such a recommendation.

Nominations, accompanied by six copies of the essay, should be directed to the chair of the Prize Committee:

Professor Roberta Wollons
Department of History and Philosophy
Indiana University Northwest

THE MAKING OF THE MODERN UNIVERSITY

Intellectual Transformation and the Marginalization of Morality

"A deeply researched and eloquently argued study of the creation of the research university, showing how its religious foundation was by the 1920s replaced by ideals of science, secularity, and cosmopolitanism. No one can claim to understand the current condition of the American research university without a close reading of this very important book."—Thomas Bender, New York University
