

Classical Studies

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge is one of the world's leading publishers of research in classical studies, with a list that covers all aspects of enquiry into the ancient world.

Our books are at the forefront of the discipline and have been recognised for their broad-ranging, thought-provoking scholarship.

Our publishing spans the full range of classical enquiry and pedagogy: critical editions of ancient texts, commentaries, literary and historical analysis, classical archaeology, theoretical perspectives, reception studies, course texts, companions and source books.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive the Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (tel. 01923 239300, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

THE CLASSICAL QUARTERLY

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for over 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history, and philosophy. Two substantial issues of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board.

FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests.
