LAW & SOCIETY REVIEW

POLICY

The Law & Society Review welcomes articles and research notes by lawyers, social scientists, and other scholars that bear on the relationship between society and the legal process. The Review is published by the Law and Society Association, an international group drawn primarily from the legal and social science professions, whose purpose is the stimulation and support of research and teaching on the cultural, economic, political, psychological, and social aspects of law and the legal system.

MEMBERSHIPS

Members of the Law and Society Association receive the Review as a perquisite of membership. Dues in the Association are:

Student (nonvoting)	$10.00	Contributing	$ 50.00
Regular	$25.00	Sustaining	$100.00

Contributions to the Law and Society Association are tax exempt.

MANUSCRIPTS

All manuscripts and editorial correspondence should be sent to:

Richard O. Lempert, Editor
Law & Society Review
University of Michigan Law School
Ann Arbor, MI 48109

Manuscripts should be submitted in quadruplicate. Text, including footnotes and references, should be double spaced with ample (1¼ inch) margins. Footnotes, references, tables, and graphs should follow the main body of the text. Citations that make the author's identity obvious should, to the extent feasible, be deleted from three of the four copies in order to facilitate anonymous reviewing. Each manuscript should contain a short (100 word) abstract and a biographical description of the author(s). A style sheet is available upon request. Manuscripts cannot be returned to authors. Because of the commitment we ask of our outside referees, the Review cannot consider for publication manuscripts being considered by other journals, and a submission to the Review carries with it the implicit promise that the manuscript will not be submitted elsewhere so long as it is under consideration by the Review.

The Law & Society Review gratefully acknowledges the generous assistance of the Cook funds of the University of Michigan Law School in supporting its editorial office.

The Law & Society Review, its editors, editorial board, and publisher, and the Law and Society Association, disclaim responsibility and liability for any statements of fact or opinion made by contributors.
