THE CLAUDE A. EGGERTSEN DISSERTATION PRIZE: This $1000 prize will be awarded for the most outstanding dissertation in the History of Education completed in the previous year.

Inquiries should be directed to Professor Roberta Wollons, Department of History, Indiana University Northwest, 3400 Broadway, Gary, Indiana 46408.

THE HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY AWARD: This award of $500 will be made biennially to the best essay in the history of education published in any journal over the previous two years. The next award will be presented at the fall 2004 meeting of the History of Education Society. Any article published in 2002 or 2003 will be eligible for the award.

THE HENRY BARNARD PRIZE: This prize of $500 is awarded biennially to the best essay in the history of education by a graduate student. The next award will be presented at the fall 2003 meeting of the History of Education Society. The recipient will have the essay published in the History of Education Quarterly.

Inquiries regarding these two awards should be directed to the chairperson of the Prize Committee: Professor Andrea Walton, WW Wright Bldg-ELPS 4218, School of Education, Indiana University, 201 N. Rose Avenue, Bloomington, IN 47405.

OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD: This award of $500 is made annually to the author of the best book on the history of education published in the previous year. The committee will accept nominations but will also make every effort to review all relevant works, whether or not they have been nominated. The award for books bearing 2002 publication dates will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in 2003.

Inquiries regarding the Outstanding Book Award should be directed to the chairperson: Professor James Leloudis, Associate Dean for Honors Director, The James M. Johnston Center for Undergraduate Excellence, 225 Graham Memorial CB# 3510, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3510 Phone: 919 966-5110 Fax: 919 962-1548.

The Society reserves the right not to make awards in those years when the Prize Committee judges all entries to be of insufficient quality.
