

FOUNDATIONS FOR FAITH

A new series which clearly explains the basic doctrines of the Christian faith, as presented, in the Bible, as formulated by the Church over the course of history, and as interpreted by leading modern theologians.

The Atoning Death of Christ

H. D. McDonald £4.95 net

Central to all Christian belief is the fact of the Atonement. Christ's atoning work, valid for all men in every age, has remained at the heart of the Church's proclamation, the richness of its content revealed in new aspects down the centuries, through changing human circumstances and thought forms. Dr. Wallace's survey of this basic doctrine provides an invaluable introduction for the student.

The Christian View of Man

Ronald Wallace £4.95 net

THE CHRISTIAN VIEW OF MAN derives primarily from the value which Jesus placed on human nature. After discussing the doctrine of man as presented in the Gospels, as well as in the OT and the apostolic writings, the author shows how this was interpreted in the Early Church, by Christian thinkers down the centuries, and finally by some leading theologians in our own day.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to one of the editors: Rev. Dr A. I. C. Heron, New College, Mound Place, Edinburgh EH1 2LX; Rev. Dr J. Houston, University of Glasgow, 3 Southpark Terrace, Glasgow G12 8QQ or to Scottish Academic Press Ltd., 33 Montgomery Street, Edinburgh EH7 5JX.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published in English, or is not being considered by another journal for publication in English. In the interests of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Scottish Academic Press. The average length of articles is 5000 words. Although longer articles are accepted, those in excess of 10,000 words cannot be considered.

Contributions (articles and reviews) should be clearly typed in double spacing, and on one side of the paper only. The rule about double spacing applies also to footnotes, which should be used sparingly. Cross-references within the article offered should not be included.

Notes for the editors and instructions for the printer should be attached on separate sheets. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for use in correcting proofs.

Contributors from the United States may use U.S. spellings. Greek and Hebrew words need not be transliterated. Capitalisation should be kept to a minimum; and in particular should not be used in pronouns referring to the Deity.

First proofs of articles and reviews may be read and corrected by contributors, and should normally be returned to the organising editor within ten days of receipt. Correction should be confined to errors of the printer. More extensive correction can be made only with the concurrence of an editor. No proofs of reviews will be sent.

Contributors of articles and article reviews (but not of reviews) receive 10 free offprints. Extra copies may be bought according to an agreed scale of charges, provided that these are ordered at the time of returning corrected proofs.
