Camerton

A Catalogue of Late Iron Age and Early Roman Metalwork

Ralph Jackson

Camerton is one of the best known and most completely investigated of the 'minor settlements' of Roman Britain. This volume includes the first full publication of the huge collection of metalwork which was discovered in 1980 at the site. The greater part of the collection is of military origin and dates to the decades around the Roman conquest of southern Britain.

EXPLORING THE ROMAN WORLD SERIES

New surveys of the provinces of the Roman Empire which combine recent archaeological discoveries with existing historical knowledge.

Roman Gaul and Germany

Anthony King

The Roman provinces of Gaul and Germany formed a distinctive part of the Roman Empire, held together by a common celtic inheritance. In this engrossing study Dr King describes the romanisation of the provinces from initial contact and conquest to the disintegration of the Roman Empire in the fifth century AD.

SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF ROMAN STUDIES
HUGH LAST AND DONALD ATKINSON
FUNDS

Applications for grants are invited for financial assistance towards the undertaking, completion or publication of work that relates to any of the general scholarly purposes of the Roman Society, which are to promote the study of the history, archaeology, literature and art of Italy and the Roman Empire, from the earliest times down to about A.D. 700. Normally this assistance will be given to applicants of post-doctoral status or the equivalent. Grants will not normally be made towards expenses incurred in the preparation of a doctoral or similar thesis.

Applications, together with two references, should be made before 15th January. They should be sent to the Secretary, Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies, 31–34, Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0PP from whom further particulars may be obtained.

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31–34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP

President: Professor J. P. Barron

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 65,000 volumes, with c. 450 current periodicals.
2. Over 6,300 coloured slides covering a wide variety of subjects, sets of slides with lecture texts and film-strips.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations, and book reviews; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public.

The annual subscription to the Society is £20.00. The composition fee for life-membership is £100.00 for those over 65 years of age, after 5 years membership. The subscription for Libraries is £26.00, for Student Associates £10.00, for Corporate Members £100. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone: 071-387 7495.

The Classical Association

THE main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organizes an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors some thirty branches, most of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is just under 4,000. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions at an annual subscription of £3; life composition for individual members, £63. Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review £13, Quarterly £14; combined subscription, £24). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £11. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by 31st January in each year) should be addressed to the Treasurer, Mr. R. Wallace, Dept. Classics, University of Keele, Keele, Staffs. ST5 5BG.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price £1.50, post free) and of the last issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1945–47 (price £1, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association are obtainable from the Treasurer. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Joint Secretaries, Dr Malcolm Schofield, St John's College, Cambridge CB2 1TP, and Miss H. M. Jones, 20 Lowestoft Road, Watford, Herts WD2 5AX.

Binding for the Journal of Roman Studies

Green Street Bindery, Green Street, Oxford OX4 1YB, will undertake to bind volumes in brown buckram, laced on boards, with title and year lettered in gold on spine to match the former standard binding, at an approximate cost of £21.50 per volume (wrappers and advertisements removed or bound in at customer's request). No extra charge for two volumes bound together. Postage chargeable extra.

Pagan and Christian in an Age of Anxiety

Some Aspects of Religious Experience from Marcus Aurelius to Constantine

E. R. DODDS

'Professor Dodds mutes and muffles nothing . . . His tone is level and just, his understanding is comprehensive and his emphasis is never polemic. There is a dry inner light in his writing which falls evenly in every sentence, a distillation of restrained wit and of the lifelong exercise of scholarship.'

The Cambridge Ancient History

Volume VII, Part 2: The Rise of Rome to 220 BC

Second Edition

Edited by F. W. WALBANK, A. E. ASTIN, M. W. FREDERIKSEN, R. M. OGILVIE and A. DRUMMOND

This volume traces the history of Rome from its origins to the eve of the Second Punic War. The complex and often controversial history of the early Republic is examined with reference to its internal development, the evolution of its relationship with the Latins, and the remorseless if erratic advance of Roman power in other parts of Italy.

Monk and Mason on the Tigris Frontier

The Early History of Tur 'Abdin

ANDREW N. PALMER

A study of the early history of the most powerful monastery in Tur 'Abdin, founded in the fourth century and still flourishing today, this book also aims to rediscover the practical and symbolic function of the monuments of Tur 'Abdin and place them in their original social context. A recurring theme is the relationship between village and monastery and, within each, between community and individual.
