JOURNALS

The Historical Journal

Editors

Julian Hoppit, University College London, UK

Andrew Preston, University of Cambridge, UK

The Historical Journal continues to publish papers on all aspects of British, European, and world history since the fifteenth century. The best contemporary scholarship is represented. Contributions come from all parts of the world. The journal aims to publish some thirty-five articles and communications each year and to review recent historical literature, mainly in the form of historiographical reviews and review articles. The journal provides a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of historians of established reputation.

Note to Contributors

The editors welcome unsolicited article manuscripts for review, but commission all book reviews. Authors should submit their manuscripts online at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lhr>. Step-by-step instructions on the website explain the submission process. Manuscripts must be double-spaced typescript throughout, with citations prepared according to the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. The Review's style guides for articles and book reviews are available on the LHR web page at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lhr>. Please use word processing. Submitted manuscripts are subject to double-blind peer review; authors should therefore identify themselves on the title page only. Accepted manuscripts are copyedited for style but not substance; authors remain responsible for citation accuracy and for all statements of fact or opinion. Law and History Review will not consider any manuscript concurrently submitted for publication elsewhere. Submission of a manuscript is understood to commit its author to publish the manuscript in Law and History Review if accepted by the editor.

American Society for Legal History

The American Society for Legal History is a nonprofit membership organization dedicated to fostering scholarship, teaching, and study concerning the law and institutions of all legal systems, both Anglo-American and international. Founded in 1956, the Society sponsors the journal and Studies in Legal History, a series of book-length monographs available to ASLH members at substantial prepublication discounts. In addition, the Society holds an annual meeting to promote scholarship and interaction among teachers, practitioners, and students interested in legal history, and publishes a semiannual newsletter reporting developments in the field. For further information concerning the Society, please write: Sally Hadden, Department of History, Western Michigan University, 4301 Friedmann Hall, Kalamazoo, MI 49008-5334, USA.

To become a member of the Society or to renew your membership please complete, print out, and mail the following form to: Cambridge University Press, Attention: Customer Services, 100 Brook Hill Drive, West Nyack, NY 10994-2133, USA; or print it out and fax it to: 845-353-4141.
