

ONE TRUE GOD

Historical Consequences of Monotheism

RODNEY STARK

Why and how did Jews, Christians, and Muslims missionize? Why did both Christianity and Islam suddenly become less tolerant of Jews late in the eleventh century, prompting outbursts of mass murder? How could the Jews persist so long as a minority faith, able to withstand intense pressures to convert?

A sweeping social history of religion, One True God shows how the great monotheisms shaped the past and created the modern world.

"I recommend this book with uncommon enthusiasm. It will command great attention and will be debated for many years."

—Jeffrey Burton Russell, author of A History of Heaven

A STIMULATING ACCOUNT

NEW TESTAMENT HISTORY

A Narrative Account

BEN WITHERINGTON III

0-8010-2293-2 • 432 pp. • $26.99c

“This is a very readable and informative survey of the rise of Christianity against its historical background. I can think of no higher praise than to say that this book may well do for this generation what F. F. Bruce’s New Testament History did for an earlier one.”

—I. Howard Marshall,
University of Aberdeen

“A well-written and informative overview not only for theologians and specialists but also for every educated and interested reader. It gives a fine introduction to the time of Jesus and the apostles and includes several new historical and archaeological insights. The numerous illustrations are also valuable.”

—Martin Hengel, University of Tübingen

To Raise Up the South

Sunday Schools in Black and White Churches, 1865–1915

SALLY G. MCMILLEN

“Although historians of southern religion have long recognized the pivotal role played by Sunday schools, it took the prodigious work of Sally McMillen to tell the complete story. Few elements of church life were more central to both black and white churches, and the institution was a chief element in the attempt to reform and uplift southern life. This is a critically important study of one of the South’s most important and neglected religious institutions.”—Wayne Flynt, author of Alabama Baptists: Southern Baptists in the Heart of Dixie

Portrayed on the Heart

NARRATIVE EFFECT IN PICTORIAL LIVES OF SAINTS FROM THE TENTH THROUGH THE THIRTEENTH CENTURY

CYNTHIA HAHN

Hahn's book is a virtual compendium of images — many rarely published — as well as a learned study that deepens our understanding of the role of various types of saints, the nature of their audience, and the historical moment when individual works were produced.

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals are $40 per year for regular membership, $20 per year for retired persons who previously held regular membership for at least five years; and free for two years for graduate students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, graduate students pay $20 annually until graduation). Institutional subscriptions are $60 per year. Foreign postage is an additional $15 per year. Single issues are $20. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701-8517.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes 1–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board. Orders for these reproductions as well as inquiries about microfilm portions and photocopies should be sent to 1118 East 54th Place, Chicago, IL 60615.

Microfilm reproductions of Church History starting with volume 18 (1949) are available to subscribers and members of the Society from University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

Church History is indexed in the Expanded Academic Index (Infotrac), American History and Life, Arts and Humanities Search, Web of Science, Historical Abstracts, Religious Periodicals, and Academic Search Elite. This periodical is also indexed in the ATLA Religion Index One, published by the American Theological Library Association, 250 S. Wacker Dr., 16th Fl., Chicago, IL 60606; (888) 665-ATLA; atla@atla.com; <http://www.atla.com/>.

The following indexes are available from the office of the executive secretary: volumes 40–49 (1971–80), vols. 50–59 (1981–90). Each index costs $20.00.

Editorial office: Church History, The Divinity School, Duke University, Box 90975, Durham, NC 27708-0975; (919) 660-3470; fax (919) 660-3473; church-history@duke.edu.

Send manuscripts, books for review, and requests about advertising to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 20–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request (1) three copies of the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay); (2) three copies of a 200-word abstract (if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be printed above the first line of the text of the article and/or it may be included on the Church History web page at www.churchhistory.org); (3) a 3½-inch diskette containing the manuscript and abstract (instead of sending a diskette, you may submit your manuscript and abstract by electronic mail). Further guidelines are available on request.

Church History is printed by the Science Press division of Cadmus Professional Communications, Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Periodicals postage paid at Red Bank, New Jersey and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.
