History

Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The editor is pleased to receive manuscripts for publication in Medical History. For detailed submission instructions, see cambridge.org/mdh/ffc

Contributions should be sent to the Editor, Professor Sanjoy Bhattacharya sanjoy.bhattacharya@york.ac.uk by email attachment. Contributions are considered on the understanding that they are unpublished and are not under consideration by another journal. Contributions should be submitted in electronic form as an email attachment, preferably in MS Word format.

Submission of articles

- Articles should preferably not exceed 12,000 words including notes.
- An abstract of up to 250 words should be included.
- A list of up to 6 keywords is required.
- The article should be submitted by email to the Editor sanjoy.bhattacharya@york.ac.uk
- Files to be in Microsoft Word Doc or RTF.

Style of presentation

- Give your name and address on a separate cover sheet, as reviews are double blind.
- Main text: Times, 12pt. Notes: Times, 11pt.
- Divide the text with sub-headings, centred and in bold.
- Do not use ALL CAPS.

Illustrations, photos and graphs

- Please note that the maximum printable area on a page is 120(w) x 180(h)mm. This does impose a limitation on the information content in tables/graphs, etc. as the font size must be sufficiently large enough to be readable.
- Images should be supplied with captions detailing their origin and date, with a clear indication of the text to which they refer. Copyright/permission details should be provided.
- Line artwork (graphs) should be saved at 1200 dpi and ideally saved as TIFF or EPS files. Halftones (photographs) should be saved at 300 dpi and ideally saved as TIFF files.
- Data for tables and graphs must be supplied separately in simple columns without table outlines or hyphens. Notes for tables must be separate from the main text of an article.
- Do not supply your images embedded in a Word Document.

Proofs

First proofs in PDF format only will be sent to the author who will be expected to return them to the Editor within three days. Authors should note that no substantive alterations or additions can be made to first proofs, and should, therefore, thoroughly check their final submission for accuracy.

Each author will receive a PDF file of his or her published article.

BOOK REVIEWS

Books for review should be sent to the Book Reviews Editor, Dr Tara Alberts, Department of History, University of York, Heslington, York YO10 5DD, UK. Email: tara.alberts@york.ac.uk. Please note that the journal does not accept unsolicited reviews.
