Liberty and Justice for All
Racial Reform and the Social Gospel (1877-1925)
 Ronald C. White, Jr.

This book tells the story of the quest for "liberty and justice for all" for African Americans that took place in the United States in the half-century following the end of Reconstruction. The people, ideas, and ongoing struggles for racial reform promoted by the Social Gospel movement in this period were a vital prelude to the modern civil rights movement.

The Social Gospel Today
 Christopher H. Evans, editor

Theologians, ethicists, and pastoral scholars here explore the enduring value of the Social Gospel tradition by answering two questions: How has the Social Gospel left its mark on the contemporary church and on American society, and how can a critical engagement with this legacy help churches develop strategies for confronting the challenges facing them today?

The Faith of Fifty Million
Baseball, Religion, and American Culture
 Edited by Christopher H. Evans and William R. Herzog II
 Reread by Stanley Hauerwas

The Faith of Fifty Million features essays by religion scholars who analyze the relationship between baseball and theology in American culture. Topics include the sense of national identity, baseball and civil religion, "saints and sinners," baseball and the American Dream with regard to racial integration, women and baseball, baseball as metaphor, and baseball as spiritual autobiography. Readers will love this fascinating intersection of baseball, race, American civil religion, and contemporary sports culture.

Five Women

OF THE

English Reformation

PAUL F. M. ZAHL

Paul Zahl vividly tells the stories of Anne Boleyn, Anne Askew, Katharine Parr, Jane Grey, and Catherine Willoughby, five mothers of the English Reformation. All of these women were powerful theologians intensely interested in the religious concerns of their day.

All but Anne Boleyn left behind a considerable body of written work — some of which is found in this book's appendices. It is the theological aspect of these women's remarkable achievements that Zahl seeks to underscore.

"An exciting history of five largely unknown women of the English Reformation — passionate lay theologians who risked their lives for their beliefs. Written with similar passion, this book is a committed and important contribution to the history of women."

Presenting . . .

America's Religions

From Their Origins to the Twenty-first Century

PETER W. WILLIAMS

"A rich resource for readers who would like a 'state of the art' comment on the abundant religious phenomena which surround them."

— Martin E. Marty, author of Modern American Religion

"Its size may be daunting, but its subject demands nothing smaller." — Booklist

This thoroughly revised edition is sixty percent larger than the original version, with comprehensive updating throughout. This eminently practical volume allows the reader to approach America's religious history from two directions: as a chronological narrative or as a series of discrete topics.

hos·pi·tal·i·ty, n. Cordial and generous reception of guests.

—The American Heritage Dictionary

In her new work, And You Welcomed Me: A Sourcebook on Hospitality in Early Christianity, Amy G. Oden presents a collection of early Christian texts regarding hospitality and its practices. The excerpts come from letters, diary accounts, sermons, instructions, travelogues, and community records and rules. They are windows into a world of early communities that saw it as their moral duty and also privilege to care for the sick, safeguard the pilgrim, and host the stranger. "Oden has brought together a wide-ranging collection of texts that is sure to stimulate conversation about practices of hospitality in the early church and today."—Roberta C. Bondi, Professor of Church History, Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia. CA2-0687096715. Paper, $27.00

Also Available:

In Her Words: Women's Writings in the History of Christian Thought, edited by Amy Oden, features selections from the writings of major female theologians. The volume includes excerpts from original texts set in modern English translation and explains their historical and theological context.

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals are $40 per year for regular membership, $20 per year for retired persons who previously held regular membership for at least five years; and free for two years for graduate students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, graduate students pay $20 annually until graduation). Institutional subscriptions are $60 per year. Foreign postage is an additional $15 per year. Single issues are $20. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701-8517.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes 1–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board. Orders for these reproductions as well as inquiries about microfilm portions and photocopies should be sent to 1118 East 54th Place, Chicago, IL 60615.

Microfilm reproductions of Church History starting with volume 18 (1949) are available to subscribers and members of the Society from University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

Church History is indexed in the Expanded Academic Index (Infotrac), American History and Life, Arts and Humanities Search, Web of Science, Historical Abstracts, Religious Periodicals, and Academic Search Elite. This periodical is also indexed in the ATLA Religion Index One, published by the American Theological Library Association, 250 S. Wacker Dr., 16th Flr., Chicago, IL 60606; (888) 665-ATLA; atla@atla.com; <http://www.atla.com/>.

Editorial office: Church History, The Divinity School, Duke University, Box 90975, Durham, NC 27708-0975; (919) 660-3470; fax (919) 660-3473; church-history@duke.edu.

Send manuscripts, books for review, and requests about advertising to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 20–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request (1) three copies of the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay); (2) three copies of a 200-word abstract (if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be printed above the first line of the text of the article and/or it may be included on the Church History web page at www.churchhistory.org); (3) a 3½-inch diskette containing the manuscript and abstract (instead of sending a diskette, you may submit your manuscript and abstract by electronic mail). Further guidelines are available on request.

Church History is printed by the Science Press division of Cadmus Professional Communications, Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Periodicals postage paid at Red Bank, New Jersey and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to American Society of Church History, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701.
