

"... outstanding
... Recommended for all university libraries."
—Magazines for Libraries

"... one of the most important journals
of history in the world."
—Small Press

"JH has faithfully
maintained its tradition
of innovation ...
exploring the relation between history and the social sciences. In this area it has acquired a considerable reputation,
which it continues
to deserve."
—The Times Literary Supplement

THE JOURNAL OF INTERDISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Edited by Robert I. Rotberg and Theodore K. Rabb

This distinguished scholarly publication incorporates the concepts and quantitative methods of the new history, bringing the best of economics, sociology, political science, archaeology, and demography into historical research.

Four times a year JH brings you original articles and reviews that explore a variety of topics without limit to geographical area or chronological order. Select recent articles include:

- ▲ Infanticide, Child Abandonment, and Abortion Jeffrey S. Richter ▲
- ▲ The French and Italian Christian Democratic Parties Carolyn M. Warner ▲
- ▲ The Midwest on the Eve of the Civil War Richard H. Steckel ▲
- ▲ English Population History David Levine ▲
- ▲ "Constructions" and Postmodern Cultural Studies Patricia M. Burnham and Lucretia Hoover Giese ▲

1998 Rates Individual $44; Institution $150; Student (copy of current ID required) & Retired $28. Outside U.S.A. and Canada add $16 postage and handling. Canadians add 7% GST. Prepayment is required. Send checks drawn against a U.S. bank in U.S. funds. AMEX, MC or VISA number to: The Journal of Interdisciplinary History Five Cambridge Center Cambridge, MA 02142 Tel: 617-253-2889 Fax: 617-577-1545 journals-orders@mit.edu Published quarterly in summer, autumn, winter, and spring by The MIT Press. Volume 29 forthcoming. ISSN 0022-1953. Prices subject to change without notice.

<http://mitpress.mit.edu/JIH>