Articles intended for publication should be sent to the Executive Secretary of the Association, at the New York Office, for transmission to the Editorial Committee. Members only may contribute articles.

Annual dues for membership in the Association, which is open only to individuals and includes subscription to PMLA, are ten dollars, except for the following special categories: (a) student membership at five dollars, open for a maximum of three years to those who are engaged primarily in a course of study leading to a degree and who do not hold full-time teaching appointments; (b) joint husband-and-wife membership at fifteen dollars with only one subscription to PMLA; (c) foreign membership at seven dollars, open to resident citizens of countries other than the United States and Canada.

The subscription price of PMLA for libraries and other institutions is twelve dollars in the United States and Canada and ten dollars in other countries. Agents deduct one dollar of these sums as their fee; institutions which subscribe directly may retain the same amount and remit eleven dollars and nine dollars in the respective cases. Single numbers and Supplements may be obtained at two dollars each.

For information about the availability and price of back issues, inquire of the MLA Treasurer at 6 Washington Square North, New York 3, N. Y. Early and current volumes may be obtained on microfilm from University Microfilms, 313 N 1st Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Purchase of current volumes on film is restricted to subscribers of the journal.

OXFORD BOOKS

OF EXCEPTIONAL INTEREST

THE STRUCTURE OF ALLEGORY IN "THE FAERIE QUEENE"

By ALBERT C. HAMILTON. In the context of Elizabethan criticism this study of Spenser's Faerie Queene outlines the argument of the entire poem and gives fresh understanding of its "continued Allegory or darke conceit." In extending the present state of scholarship on Spenser, it offers the reader insight into that "sweet variety" whose "rare thoughts delight" sustained the poet as he wrote. $5.60

THE GERMAN IMAGE OF GOETHE

By WOLFGANG LEPPMANN. While Goethe is, after Shakespeare, perhaps the most written about author in world literature, his influence on later generations has never been comprehensively examined. In offering a balanced account of Goethe's effect on the literary, musical, scientific, and political life of Germany from the 1770's to the present, Professor Leppmann traces the rise, fall, and rebirth of a great writer's reputation. $6.10

BAUDELAIRE'S TRAGIC HERO

A Study of the Architecture of Les Fleurs du Mal

By D. J. MOSSOP. In this volume Mr. Mossop fully explores the "architectural secret" of Baudelaire's famous tragedy Les Fleurs du Mal and comes to the conclusion that it has a richness and unity about it that has largely been ignored by critics. $4.00

THE WRITER'S DILEMMA

Introduction by STEPHEN SPENDER. Trenchant answers to the question, "What are the limits beyond his own control that threaten the modern writer?" Articles from TLS by Arnold J. Toynbee, John Bowen, Lawrence Durrell, Gerald Heard, Nathalie Sarraute, William Golding, Arthur Calder-Marshall, Saul Bellow, Alan Sillitoe, and Richard Wollheim. $2.50
