TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced typed copies. Both indented quotations and footnotes should be double-spaced; footnotes should be placed at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts are sent to referees anonymously and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration and the Chicago Manual of Style should be followed; manuscripts will be edited to conform to these styles or will be returned to the author for editing. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages 8½ × 11 inches in dimension. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is included.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to submissions by members of AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application.

Eastern Europe, Gorbachev and Reform

The Great Challenge

Karen Dawisha

"No question may be as important to the viability and ultimate fate of Gorbachev's attempt at reformation of Soviet society, and the prospects for lasting improvement in Soviet-American relations, as the future course of events in Eastern Europe. And no book provides a better basis for understanding Eastern Europe, Gorbachev and Reform than Professor Dawisha's excellent new study — informed, insightful, and informing."

The Soviet Study of International Relations

Allen Lynch

The author shows how nuclear warfare, continued western prosperity, and the Sino-Soviet split have forced Soviet analysts to diverge sharply from traditional Leninist orthodoxy: the result has been a Soviet analysis of world politics that is considerably more complex and politically sophisticated than westerners often assume.

The Jews of the Soviet Union

A History of a National Minority

Benjamin Pinkus

This is the first comprehensive and up-to-date history of the Jews in the Soviet Union, based on first-hand documentary evidence and the application of a pioneering research method into the fate of national minorities under authoritarian regimes. It describes in depth the complex relationships between Soviet Jewry and world Jewry including the State of Israel.
