

Editors' Notes

PEAES 2001 ARTICLE AWARDS

The Program in Early American Economy and Society at the Library Company of Philadelphia is pleased to announce the recipients of its prizes for outstanding articles in early American economic history published during the year 2000. There were numerous distinguished nominations for this year's award, and we are most fortunate to be able to make these awards of outstanding scholarship. Please join us in recognizing the following: David Cowen, "The First Bank of the United States and the Securities Market Crash of 1792," Journal of Economic History 60, no. 4 (December, 2000): 1041–6; and Robert Martello, "Paul Revere's Last Ride: The Road to Rolling Copper," Journal of the Early Republic 20 (Summer, 2000): 219–39. The winners will be recognized at the annual awards banquet of the Economic History Association in September 2001 in Philadelphia.

REQUEST FOR RESEARCH PROPOSALS ON ADVANCED GERMAN AND EUROPEAN STUDIES

The Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies offers one year of research support at the Free University in Berlin (DM 2,000 per month). It is open to scholars in all social-science and humanities disciplines, including historians working on the period since the mid-nineteenth century. The program accepts applications from U.S. and Canadian nationals or permanent residents who are full-time graduate students and who have completed all course work required for the Ph.D. Also eligible are U.S. and Canadian Ph.D.s who received their doctorates within the past two years. The deadline is 1 December 2001. For information or an application contact: Berlin Program, Social Science Research Council, telephone: (212) 377-2700, Fax: (212) 377-2727, e-mail: berlin@ssrc.org. To download an application, contact <http://www.ssrc.org/berfell.htm>.

SSRC FELLOWSHIP FOR THE STUDY OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE, THE SOVIET UNION, AND THE NEW INDEPENDENT STATES

The Eurasia Program of the Social Science Research Council is pleased to announce a fellowship program for research on the Russian Empire, the Soviet Union, and the New Independent States, funded by the U.S. Department of State under the Program for Research and Training on Eastern Europe and the Independent States of the Former Soviet Union (Title VIII). Fellowships are offered in three categories. Graduate Training fellowships are for pre-dissertation-stage graduate students to enhance their disciplinary, methodological, or language training. Dissertation Write-up fellowships are for those graduate students who have completed their dissertation research and expect to complete writing the dissertation during the 2002–2003 academic year. Postdoctoral fellowships are designed to improve the academic employment and tenure opportunities of recent Ph.D. recipients (up to six years past the Ph.D.). All applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. All fellowships awarded under this program are contingent upon the receipt of funding from the U.S. Department of State. The application deadline is 1 November 2001. An application can be downloaded from our website at <http://www.ssrc.org>, or please contact us for more information: Eurasia Fellowship Program, Social Science Research Council, 810 Seventh Avenue, 31st Floor, New York, NY 10019, phone: (212) 377-2700, e-mail: Eurasia@ssrc.org.

JOURNAL OF MARKETING HISTORY

The Journal of Marketing History is a new online journal to be launched this year. The aims of the journal are to encourage lively debate and to increase knowledge and understanding of the development and growth of marketing across the world. Its scope includes any aspect or combination of marketing including product, pricing, retail and distribution, services, media, and public relations and other forms of marketing communications, including e-marketing.

Submissions are welcomed, and should be sent to: David Tiltman, World Advertising Research Center, Farm Road, Henley-on-Thames, Oxon RG9 1EJ, United Kingdom. You can also e-mail submissions to: david_tiltman@warc.com. Submission guidelines can be found at www.warc.com/jmh.