ARTICLES SUBMITTED FOR PUBLICATION IN THE INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF THE RED CROSS

The International Review of the Red Cross invites readers to submit articles relating to the various humanitarian concerns of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. These will be considered for publication on the basis of merit and relevance to the topics to be covered during the year.

• Manuscripts will be accepted in English, French, Spanish, Arabic or German.

Texts should be typed, double-spaced, and no longer than 20 pages (or 4 000 words). Please send diskettes if possible (Word-perfect 5.1 preferred).

• Footnotes (no more than 30) should be numbered superscript in the main text. They should be typed, double-spaced, and grouped at the end of the article.

• Bibliographical references should include at least the following details: (a) for books, the author's initials and surname (in that order), book title (underlined), place of publications, publishers and year of publication (in that order), and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.); (b) for articles, the author's initials and surname, article title in inverted commas, title of periodical (underlined), place of publication, periodical date, volume and issue number, and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.). The titles of articles, books and periodicals should be given in the original language of publication.

• Unpublished manuscripts will not be returned.

• Published works sent to the editor will be mentioned in the list of publications received and, if considered appropriate, reviewed.

• Manuscripts, correspondence and requests for permission to reproduce texts appearing in the Review should be addressed to the editor.

Articles, studies, and other signed texts from non-ICRC sources published in the Review reflect the views of the author alone and not necessarily those of the ICRC.

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW

SYNOPSES

From 1985 to 1989, the International Review of the Red Cross published nine legal synopses devoted to various aspects of international humanitarian law. The author, Jean de Preux, a former legal expert at the ICRC, adopted a didactic approach in dealing with major topics concerning humanitarian law (e.g. combatant and prisoner-of-war status) and in guiding the reader by highlighting key words and expressions relating to each of the topics (e.g. combatants: status, respect for the law of armed conflict, loss of status, general condition that combatants must be distinguishable, scope of the rule that combatants must be distinguishable, etc.). The texts were designed to facilitate the teaching of humanitarian law to both the initiated and the layman, whatever their background or occupation.

The nine legal synopses were received very enthusiastically by disseminators of international humanitarian law in the National Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and by academic circles. This has encouraged the Review to publish the collected texts in the form of a handy and readily accessible booklet, which should be of great service to both teachers and students, and indeed to any reader interested in the subject.

The synopses deal with the following topics.

Protecting Power Protection of civilian populations against the effects of hostilities Special protection of women and children Identification Capture

-Relief

Combatant and prisoner-of-war status Conventions and Neutral Powers Respect for the human being in the Geneva Conventions

This book is published in English, French and Spanish. Price: 8 Swiss francs. Orders should be sent to the ICRC, Public Information Division.

The International Review of the Red Cross is the official publication of the International Committee of the Red Cross. It was first published in 1869 under the title "Bulletin international des Sociétés de secours aux militaires blessés", and then "Bulletin international des Sociétés de la Croix-Rouge".

The International Review of the Red Cross is a forum for reflection and comment and serves as a reference work on the mission and guiding principles of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. It is also a specialized journal in the field of international humanitarian law and other aspects of humanitarian endeavour.

As a chronicle of the international activities of the Movement and a record of events, the International Review of the Red Cross is a constant source of information and maintains a link between the components of the International Red Cross and Red Cross and Red Cross the Vertice of the terms of terms of the terms of terms

The International Review of the Red Cross is published every two months, in four main editions:

French: REVUE INTERNATIONALE DE LA CROIX-ROUGE (since October 1869) English: INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF THE RED CROSS (since April 1961) Spanish: REVISTA INTERNACIONAL DE LA CRUZ ROJA (since January 1976) Arabic: الجملة الدولية للصليب الأحر (since May-June 1988)

Selected articles from the main editions have also been published in German under the title Auszüge since January 1950.

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, together with the National Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, form the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

The ICRC, which gave rise to the Movement, is an independent humanitarian institution. As a neutral intermediary in the event of armed conflict or unrest it endeavours, on its own initiative or on the basis of the Geneva Conventions, to bring protection and assistance to the victims of international and non-international armed conflict and internal disturbances and tension.
