

EDITOR'S NOTE: Special double issue on the Kosovo Conflict

In response to the exceptional events of Spring 1999, this issue of the Foreign Policy Bulletin departs from standard format. Firstly, the issue spans a four month rather than two month interval. Secondly, rather than broadly covering developments in U.S. foreign policy, it focuses almost entirely on a single sequence of events: the conflict in Kosovo. The issue also contains the core documents from NATO's 50th Anniversary summit meeting in Washington, DC.

The upcoming issue (volume 10, number 5) will complement this one, documenting other major developments in U.S. foreign policy during the Spring and Summer 1999, with particular attention to the bilateral relationship between the U.S. and the People's Republic of China.
