
Editorial

- 81 Reforming emergency care: implications for psychiatry
M. J. Henderson, A. E. Hicks and M. H. Hotopf

Opinion & debate

- 83 Acute hospital care in inner London: splitting from mental health services in the community
Luiz Dratcu, Alistair Grandison and Antony Adkin

Drug Information Quarterly

- 87 Experience of thioridazine use before and after the Committee on Safety of Medicines warning
T Matthews and S. N. Weston

Original papers

- 90 A survey of liaison psychiatry services in the south-west of England
Alison Howe, Julie Hendry and John Potokar
- 93 Evaluating the relationship of high-dose venlafaxine prescribing to treatment-resistant depression
Arwel Thomas and David Taylor
- 96 A survey of referrer's satisfaction with a regional forensic psychiatric service: what do they want?
M. Papanastassiou, S. Roche, J. Boyle, R. Baxter and P. Chesterman

- 99 Drug misuse in pregnancy: the impact of a specialist treatment service
E. Day, L. Porter, A. Clarke, D. Allen, H. Moselhy and A. Copello

- 102 Electroconvulsive therapy in Hong Kong
K.-F. Chung, Y.-K. Ng, G.-C. Yu and H.-K. Cheung

Special articles

- 105 Service innovations: The Orchard Clinic: Scotland's first medium secure unit
D. Nelson

- 108 Acute wards: problems and solutions. Implementing real change in acute in-patient care – more than just bringing in the builders...
Susannah Rix and Geoff Shepherd

Education & training

- 112 The 'Out-of-Programme Experience'
Joe Stratford

Columns

- 115 Correspondence
- 116 The College
Winter business meeting
Council report CR105
Council report CR107
- 118 Obituaries
- 120 Forthcoming events