English Language & Linguistics

Editors

Wim van der Wurff, University of Newcastle upon Tyne, UK
April McMahon, Aberystwyth University, UK
Bernd Kortmann, University of Freiburg, Germany

Founding Editors

Bas Aarts, University College London
David Denison, University of Manchester
Richard Hogg, University of Manchester, UK

English Language & Linguistics focuses on the description of the English language within the framework of contemporary linguistics. The journal is concerned equally with the synchronic and the diachronic aspects of English language studies. Articles contribute to our understanding of the structure and development of the English language.

Journal of the International Phonetic Association

Published for the International Phonetic Association

Editor

Adrian P. Simpson, Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena, Germany

The Journal of the International Phonetic Association (JIPA) is a forum for work in the fields of phonetic theory and description. As well as including papers on laboratory phonetics/phonology and related topics, the journal encourages submissions on practical applications of phonetics to areas such as phonetics teaching and speech therapy, as well as the analysis of speech phenomena in relation to computer speech processing. It is especially concerned with the theory behind the International Phonetic Alphabet and discussions of the use of symbols for illustrating the phonetic structures of a wide variety of languages. JIPA now publishes online audio files to supplement written articles.

Journal of Child Language

Editor

Heike Behrens, University of Basel, Switzerland

A key publication in the field, Journal of Child Language publishes articles on all aspects of the scientific study of language development and behaviour in children, the principles which underlie it, and the theories which may account for it. The international range of authors and breadth of coverage allow the journal to forge links between many different areas of research including psychology, linguistics, cognitive science, speech pathology and anthropology. The interdisciplinary and crosslinguistic perspective spans a wide range of interests: phonology, phonetics, morphology, syntax, vocabulary, semantics, pragmatics, sociolinguistics and other recognised aspects of language study. In addition to articles and brief research reports, the journal also features occasional review articles plus invited commentaries.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in all branches of theoretical linguistics. The journal also provides an excellent survey of recent linguistics publications, with around thirty book reviews in each volume and regular review articles on major works marking important theoretical advances.

Full Instructions for Contributors are available at <http://journals.cambridge.org/lin>

THE LINGUISTICS ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Linguistics Association of Great Britain (LAGB) is the leading professional association for academic linguists in Great Britain, and welcomes new members. Its scope includes all branches of linguistics – formal or functional, theoretical or descriptive, synchronic or diachronic, social or psychological (or neither), concerned with one language or many. Its members individually favour a wide range of different theories of language structure, and all theoretical persuasions are welcome. To learn more, please see <http://www.lagb.org.uk>

The LAGB's main activities are:

- Publication of the Journal of Linguistics.
- An annual conference, which includes invited overseas speakers of renown, a workshop, a language tutorial, various specialist sessions and a summer school, as well as papers reflecting a wide range of views and approaches.
- Representation of linguistics and linguists in matters such as research funding and quality assessment.
- Bridging the gap between academic linguistics and language education through the activities of the LAGB Education Committee. This committee organizes specialist Linguistics at School sessions at LAGB meetings and maintains a glossary of grammatical terminology for schools.
- Maintenance of discussion forums for discussion of general issues.

Members of the LAGB are eligible for a print subscription to the Journal of Linguistics at a special rate. For details, please see <http://www.lagb.org.uk/new-subscriptions>
