NOTES IN THE HISTORY OF SIR JEROME ALEXANDER. By the Rev.
CHARLES ROGERS, LL.D., F.S.A. Scot.	220

LAWS OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

I. The Society shall be designated THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

II. The objects of the Society shall be the conducting of Historical, Biographical, and Ethnographical investigations.

III. The Society shall consist of Fellows who shall subscribe One Guinea annually to the funds, payable in advance, with an entrance fee of Half a Guinea.

IV. The affairs of the Society shall be conducted by a Council, to be chosen annually at the General Meeting, consisting of a President, Eight Vice-Presidents, Sixteen Fellows, together with a Secretary, a Treasurer, and an Historiographer.

V. The Council shall determine the works to be edited and printed, and the materials to be collected, and otherwise shall arrange the business of the Society.

VI. The Council shall not incur any obligations beyond the annual income of the Society ; and no Fellow of the Society shall be responsible for any expenditure beyond the amount of his annual subscription.

VII. The accounts of the receipts and disbursements of the Society shall be audited annually by two Auditors, to be elected at the General Meeting from among the Fellows.

VIII. Every Fellow not in arrear of his subscriptions shall receive one copy of each work printed by the Society.

IX. Fellows who are disposed to contribute works at their own expense, shall be permitted to do so, such works having been submitted to the Council, and approved of by them before being sent to press.

X. Fellows of the Society may at any time compound for their whole future annual subscriptions by the payment of Ten Guineas.

XI. Any Fellow of the Society who shall intimate to the Secretary his desire to withdraw from the same, and who shall have paid his subscription for the current year, shall thereupon cease to be a Fellow.

XII. Fellows shall be admitted by the Council on a vote by ballot. A majority of the Council present shall be necessary to the admission of candidates.

XIII. Persons eminent in literature may be admitted Honorary Fellows, but these shall have no claim (unless on the usual annual payment) to receive the publications of the Society.

XIV. Meetings of the Society shall be held for the reading and discussion of papers, &c. A General Meeting of the Society shall be held annually, on a day to be fixed by the Council, and of which due notice shall be given to the Fellows.

XV. No alterations shall be made in these laws, except at a General Meeting of the Society—nor then unless at least one month's notice of the change to be proposed at such meeting shall have been given in writing to the Secretary, and approved by a majority of the Council.
