Jewish City or Inferno of Russian Israel?

A History of the Jews in Kiev before February 1917

VICTORIA KHITERER

Series: Jews of Russia and Eastern Europe and Their Legacy
March 2016 | 9781618114761 | $89.00 | Hardback

This monograph describes the history of Jews in Kiev from the tenth century until the February 1917 Revolution. Khiterer analyzes the contribution of Jews in the development of the city, Jewish education, religious and cultural life, as well as the persecution of Jews, pogroms and the Beilis Affair.

Watersheds

Poetics and Politics of the Danube River

EDITED BY MARIJETA BOZOVIC & MATTHEW D. MILLER

Series: Studies in Russian and Slavic Literatures, Cultures, and History
April 2016 | 9781618114877 | $82.00 | Hardback

The Danube river connects fourteen European countries, serving as the artery of a culturally and economically diverse geographic region. Watersheds: Poetics and Politics of the Danube River advances a multidisciplinary approach to the river and its imaginaries to explore a site of transcultural engagement, remapping and reimagining Europe along the way.

Terror and Pity

Aleksandr Sumarokov and the Theater of Power in Elizabethan Russia

KIRILL OSPOVAT

Series: Imperial Encounters in Russian History
May 2016 | 9781618114723 | $79.00 | Hardback

This volume illuminates the emergence of tragedy as a political genre in eighteenth-century Russia and the complex interaction between drama and symbolic structures of power. Engaging with a wide range of sources, Ospovat explores the deeply ambiguous visions of authority common to tragedy and the historical experience of early modern "absolutisms".

Petersburg Winters and Disintegration of the Atom

Selected Memoirs and Prose Fiction

GEORGY IVANOV

TRANSLATED AND EDITED BY JEROME KATSELL & STANISLAV SHVABRIN

Series: Cultural Revolutions: Russia in the Twentieth Century
May 2016 | 9781618114549 | $39.00 | Hardback

This collection presents translations of two celebrated works by Georgy Ivanov. Petersburg Winters (1928) is a portrait of Petersburg swept up in the artistic ferment of late Imperial and Revolutionary Russia. The spirit of the city is conveyed through a series of vignettes of Ivanov's contemporaries, including Blok, Akhmatova, Esenin, and Mandelstam. Disintegration of the Atom (1938) is a prose poem depicting Russian émigré despair on the eve of WWII—a cri de coeur that challenges prevailing concepts of time and space, ending in erotically charged wretchedness.
