

Jacques Maritain

is the foremost Christian philosopher of our times. As Edwin Muir said in the Sunday Times, 'he has a profound humanity founded on a living experience of religion' and his books are read not merely by scholars, but by everyone seriously concerned with the problems of living a Christian life fully.

ON THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY

'The most thought-provoking survey of Europe's past I have read for a very long time'—GLANMOR WILLIAMS, Western Mail. 'Of high importance. To be studied by all serious students'

SEEKING THE CITY

A SPIRITUAL AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Edward Charles Rich

To change the convictions of a lifetime takes honesty, courage and determination. All these qualities were possessed, and needed, by the author of this book, a former Canon of Peterborough Cathedral, when after more than thirty years in the service of the Church of England he became a Catholic.

This is the story of his quest for truth. Characterized by charity and a deep affection for the Church he served so long and so well, it is a story that everybody concerned with the urgent problem of Christian unity will want to read and discuss.
