

THE AKATHISTOS HYMN

Translated by Fr Vincent McNabb, with liturgical and historical notes by Donald Attwater. This new and cheap edition of the famous Byzantine litany to Our Lady presents, not only a historic document of great interest and importance, but also a singularly beautiful indulgenced prayer, which will be new to many, and of great devotional value to all.

“Things That Are God’s”

Under that title a fruitful article on the meaning of Christian charity, by Father Gerald Vann, O.P., was published in the June issue of CONTEXT. It was one of many notable articles on various aspects of the spiritual life which have appeared in recent issues of the magazine. Other articles of a similar nature will be published during the next few months, as part of the policy of CONTEXT to provide each month an ample budget of worth-while reading on widely varied departments of the Catholic Faith.

A subscription costs twelve shillings a year, and there is no charge for postage to any part of the world.

READING BETWEEN THE LINES

by FERDINAND VALENTINE, O.P.

Six Shillings

Many readers of THE LIFE OF THE SPIRIT will be familiar with 'Whatsoever He Shall Say' and 'The Inside of the Cup', the first and second volumes of the 'Theophila Correspondence', still available at 5/- and 6/- respectively. In this third volume of the series the correspondence takes a new turn. Using St John's Gospel as a point of departure, Fr Valentine attempts 'to illustrate from Sacred Scripture the principles discussed in the two former volumes'. The result is a sort of informal commentary which, by virtue of its equal insistence on the literal and spiritual senses of the narrative, will be of special value to those who find difficulty in linking their Scripture Study to their daily lives.
