AIMS OF THE JOURNAL

The American Journal of Law & Medicine is published in the interest of members of the American Society of Law & Medicine, and of those in the legal, insurance and health care professions who seek to further interdisciplinary discussion and knowledge in the areas where law, medicine, government, and insurance interrelate. Publication of any article or advertisement should not be deemed an endorsement of the opinions expressed or products advertised.

REPRINTS AND/OR PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE

Reprints and/or permission to reproduce material herein should be requested by writing to the Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of Law & Medicine, Editorial Offices, 454 Brookline Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

The Editors encourage the submission of manuscripts which pertain to legal and insurance medicine and health law for publication in the Journal. Submission of book reviews, abstracts of recent cases of interest and importance, proceedings of symposia, and digests of important articles in the relevant literature also is welcomed. All materials should be sent in triplicate to the Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of Law & Medicine, Editorial Offices, 454 Brookline Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215.

STYLE OF MANUSCRIPT

General Form: Manuscripts should be typewritten on one side of the paper only, with double spacing and liberal margins. Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, i.e., an original and two carbon or Xerox copies. The title of the paper and the author's name and address should be given on a covering sheet.

Abstract: A short abstract (normally not exceeding 200 words) succinctly summarizing the content of the manuscript should accompany the manuscript on a separate sheet.

References: Footnotes to sources should appear in the text, numbered consecutively, and placed at the bottom of each page in numerical sequence or on separate pages at the end of the text. Footnotes should include the author's name, initials, title of article in the original language, name of publication with volume, page and year. All footnotes containing references to legal sources should conform to the Uniform System of Citation.

Illustrations: Illustrations and tables accompanying manuscripts should be numbered, provided with suitable legends, and marked lightly on the back with the author's name. Authors should indicate on the manuscript the appropriate positions of tables and text figures. Special arrangements must be made with the Editor-in-Chief for color plates, elaborate tables, half-tone illustrations or extra illustrations, drawings, and photographs.

Publication Language: English.

PROOFS AND AUTHOR REPRINTS

Because of time pressures, galley proofs of articles accepted for publication will not be made available to authors. Fifty reprints of each article will be distributed to the author or divided among the authors if there are more than one.
