The Play Out of Context

Transferring Plays from Culture to Culture

Edited by HANNA SCOLNICOV and PETER HOLLAND

This volume of essays, based on essays presented at the Jerusalem Theatre Conference in 1986, examines the relationship between the play and its historical and cultural setting. The plays are examined in their own time and throughout history, with themes ranging from a Japanese interpretation of Chekhov, to Shakespeare in Nazi Germany, and to Racine borrowing from Sophocles.

The Theory and Analysis of Drama

MANFRED PFISTER

Translated by JOHN HALLIDAY

Since its publication in 1977 in Germany, this volume has been the standard work on dramatic theory in German-speaking countries. This translation, based on the fifth and latest edition, makes the work available for the first time in English. It is the first work to provide a comprehensive and coherent framework for the analysis of plays in all their dramatic and theatrical dimensions. Professor Pfister discusses all genres and periods of drama, from Greek tragedy and comedy to contemporary theory, with Shakespearian plays providing a special focus.

THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £2 ($3); per volume £4 ($6) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £50 ($75). Postage extra.
