Tennent Caledonian and Royal Bank of Scotland Research Fellowships 1990-91

Applications are invited for these Research Fellowships for the academic session 1990-91.

The fellowships are intended primarily, though not exclusively, for philosophers and political theorists on study leave from their own universities or colleges. Appointment is normally for one term and the fellowship carries a travel allowance, accommodation in St Andrews and a room in the Department of Moral Philosophy, and access to word-processing facilities. Further details are available from the Director, Dr John Haldane, Centre for Philosophy and Public Affairs, University of St Andrews.

Applications, including a c.v., a short statement of research intentions or plans, and an indication of the term during which the fellowship would be held, should be submitted no later than 15 November 1989 (though early applications are welcome) to:

The Director of Personnel Services,
College Gate,
University of St Andrews,
North Street,
ST ANDREWS,

STUDIES IN HISTORY & PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE

Editor: NICHOLAS JARDINE, Department of History & Philosophy of Science, University of Cambridge, Free School Lane, Cambridge CB2 3RH, UK

Senior Consulting Editor: GERD BUCHDAHL, Department of History & Philosophy of Science, University of Cambridge, Free School Lane, Cambridge CB2 3RH, UK

Book Review Editor: JENNY WARD.

Studies in History & Philosophy of Science is essential reading for students and teachers concerned with the historical, social and intellectual contexts of the sciences and with their methodology and epistemology.

The journal particularly encourages studies which integrate philosophical, historical and sociological considerations. Its orientation is international, with contributions from a wide range of cultural perspectives.

The papers published are of the highest scholarly quality. Since the journal's inception it has proved an invaluable source both for reflective scientists and for workers in the history, philosophy and sociology of science.

Relevant papers are welcome for editorial consideration.

GOVERNANCE

An International Journal of Policy and Administration

Edited by Colin Campbell and B. Guy Peters

This important new journal provides a forum for work in the field of executive politics—as practised both by elected politicians and career civil servants—primarily from a comparative perspective. It fills a gap in the current literature by relating the politics of the executive branch in a wide range of countries with other components of the political system.

Recent articles include

Bureaucratic Primacy: Japanese Policy Communities in an American Perspective
JOHN CREIGHTON CAMPBELL

Independent and Politicized Policy Communities: Education and Nuclear Energy in France and in the United States
FRANK R. BAUMGARTNER

Policy Communities in a Leninist State: The Case of the Chinese Economic Policy Community
NINA P. HALPERN
