ARTICLE III

Business Facilitation and Business Rights

6. Investment shall at all times be accorded fair and equitable treatment, shall enjoy full protection and security and shall in no case be accorded treatment less than that required by international law. Neither Party shall in any way impair by arbitrary and discriminatory measures the management, operation, maintenance, use, enjoyment, acquisition, expansion or disposal of investments. Each Party shall observe any obligation it may have entered into with regard to investments.
7. Each Party shall provide effective means of asserting claims and enforcing rights with respect to investments under this Treaty and authorizations relating thereto, with the exception of denials thereof, and investment agreements.
8. Subject to the right to make or maintain exceptions falling within one of the sectors or matters listed in the Annex, each Party shall accord nondiscriminatory treatment to nationals and companies of the other Party in the conduct of their investment and associated activities with respect to:
- (a) the granting of franchises or rights under licenses;
 - (b) the issuance of registrations, licenses, permits and other approvals necessary for the conduct of commercial activity, which shall in any event be issued expeditiously;
 - (c) access to financial institutions and credit markets;
 - (d) access to their funds held in financial institutions;
 - (e) the importation and installation of equipment necessary for the normal conduct of business affairs, including, but not limited to office equipment and automobiles, and the export of any equipment and automobiles so imported;
 - (f) the dissemination of commercial information;
 - (g) the conduct of market studies;
 - (h) the appointment of commercial representatives, including agents, consultants and distributors and their participation in trade fairs and promotion events;
 - (i) the marketing of goods and services, including through internal distribution and marketing systems and by direct contact with individuals and companies;
 - (j) access to public utilities, public services and commercial rental space at nondiscriminatory prices, if the prices are set or controlled by the government;
 - (k) access to raw materials, inputs and services of all types at nondiscriminatory prices, if the prices are set or controlled by the government.
9. Subject to the right to make or maintain exceptions falling within one of the sectors or matters listed in the Annex, for purposes of facilitating investment and associated activities, each Party shall accord nondiscriminatory treatment to nationals and companies of the other Party with respect to the sale, offering for sale and acquisition of equity shares and other securities. With respect to acquisition of interests in any governmentally-owned enterprise or organization undergoing privatization, the Republic of Poland shall provide most-favored nation treatment to nationals and companies of the United States.
1. Each Party will encourage the participation of its nationals and companies in trade promotion events such as fairs, exhibitions, missions and seminars held in the territory of the other Party. Similarly, each Party will encourage nationals and companies of the other Party to participate in trade promotion events in its territory. Subject to the laws in force within their territories, the Parties agree to allow the import and re-export on a duty-free basis of all articles for use in trade promotion events, provided that such articles are not sold or otherwise transferred.
2. Subject to the right to make or maintain exceptions falling within one of the sectors or matters listed in the Annex, for purposes of facilitating trade between the Republic of Poland and the United States in goods and services, each Party shall accord nondiscriminatory treatment to nationals and companies of the other Party in the conduct of their commercial activities with respect to:
- (a) the granting of franchises or rights under licenses;
 - (b) the issuance of registrations, licenses, permits and other approvals necessary for the conduct of commercial activity, which shall in any event be issued expeditiously;
 - (c) access to financial institutions and credit markets;
 - (d) access to their funds held in financial institutions;
 - (e) the importation and installation of equipment necessary for the normal conduct of business affairs, including, but not limited to office equipment and automobiles, and the export of any equipment and automobiles so imported;
 - (f) the dissemination of commercial information;
 - (g) the conduct of market studies;
 - (h) the appointment of commercial representatives, including agents, consultants and distributors and their participation in trade fairs and promotion events;
 - (i) the marketing of goods and services, including through internal distribution and marketing systems and by direct contact with individuals and companies;
 - (j) access to public utilities, public services and commercial rental space at nondiscriminatory prices, if the prices are set or controlled by the government;
 - (k) access to raw materials, inputs and services of all types at nondiscriminatory prices, if the prices are set or controlled by the government.
3. Nationals and companies of each Party in the conduct of commercial activities shall at all times be accorded fair and equitable treatment, shall enjoy full protection and security and shall in no case be accorded treatment less than that required by international law. Neither Party shall in any way impair by arbitrary and discriminatory measures the conduct of commercial activities. Each Party shall observe any obligation it may have entered into with regard to the conduct of commercial activities.
4. Each Party agrees to notify the other Party before or on the date of entry into force of this Treaty of all laws and regulations of which it is aware concerning the sectors or matters listed in the
