Tempo

Editor

Calum MacDonald, Gloucestershire, UK

Tempo is the premier English-language journal devoted to twentieth-century and contemporary concert music. Literate and scholarly articles, often illustrated with music examples, explore many aspects of the work of composers throughout the world. Written in an accessible style, approaches range from the narrative to the strictly analytical. Tempo frequently ventures outside the acknowledged canon to reflect the diversity of the modern music scene. Issues feature interviews with leading contemporary composers, a tabulated news section, and lively and wide-ranging reviews of recent recordings, books and first performances around the world. Selected issues also contain specially-commissioned music supplements.

GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Submissions to the journal should be sent as Word file attachments to the editors at coj.editorial@cambridge.org.

If size of files is a concern at initial submission, contributors should consult with the editors by emailing them at the same address.

Books for review should be sent to:

Dr Benjamin Walton
Jesus College
Jesus Lane
Cambridge CB5 8BL
UK

Articles should typically be between 8,000 and 12,000 words; authors proposing longer or shorter submissions should seek the advice of the editors.

Files should be double spaced throughout (including notes, etc.). Punctuation should follow standard British practice. Notes should be numbered consecutively. Italic and bold fonts can be used; right margins should be unjustified. An abstract should be written to start the paper. An author biography of about 6 lines must also be supplied.

For further information, including a detailed style guide, please consult the Instructions for Contributors: assets.cambridge.org/OPR/OPR_ifc.pdf

Music examples and photographs should be scanned at 300dpi, and supplied in separate files.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their typescript. Full details of the source and the full address of the copyright holder, if this differs, should be provided.

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can be reached without delay and are able to return the corrected proofs within three days of receipt.
