Hague Journal on the Rule of Law

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editors-in-Chief

Julio Faundez, Warwick University, UK

Randy Peerenboom, La Trobe University Melbourne, Australia, and Associate Fellow Oxford University Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, UK

This exciting new journal provides a timely forum for the rapidly-expanding field of the rule of law, encapsulating cutting-edge study from all related disciplines.

This unique centre for the exchange of views between academics and practitioners gives focus to the promotion of the rule of law on both the national and international stage.

The journal aims to deepen and broaden the knowledge of the rule of law and its relation to economic growth, poverty reduction, promotion of democracy, protection of human rights and geopolitical stability. The journal invites and will publish academic articles, practitioner reports and commentary, book reviews and special volumes on major developments and themes in the rule of law field.

International & Comparative Law Quarterly

Published for the British Institute of International and Comparative Law (BIICL)

Editors

Catherine Redgwell, University College London, UK

Robert McCorquodale, British Institute of International and Comparative

International & Comparative Law Quarterly (ICLQ) publishes papers on public and private international law and also comparative law. It has maintained its pre-eminence as one of the earliest and most important journals of its kind, encompassing human rights and European law. The journal encourages innovative and original articles that explore the interconnectedness between the legal subject areas, moving across the boundaries that divide the law in a way that provides vital analysis at a time when formal distinctions, in scholarship and between jurisdictions, are becoming less relevant. The ICLQ attracts scholarship of the highest standard from around the world, which contributes to the maintenance of its truly international frame of reference. The 'Shorter Articles, Comments, and Notes' and 'Current Developments' sections particularly enable the discussion of highly topical legal issues.

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Israel Law Review welcomes unsolicited articles and book reviews. For detailed submission instructions, see <http://journals.cambridge.org/isr/ifc>

To be considered for publication and submitted to the review procedure, submissions should be within the scope of the Journal, as described on the inside front cover. Consideration will normally be given only to original material that has not previously been published. In exceptional cases material that is currently under review elsewhere will be considered. Authors are asked to indicate clearly with their submission if this is the case.

Submissions should be written in good English and so authors are encouraged to have their contributions edited for language prior to submission, where necessary.

Article submissions should contribute specifically to scholarly discussions in the fields of human rights, public law and/or international law, and normally be in the range of 8,000 to 15,000 words (including footnotes), although longer submissions may be accepted.

The Israel Law Review welcomes reviews of books covering the Journal's areas of focus. Book reviews are subject to the standard review procedure. Books are not sent to unsolicited reviewers.

Submissions should be prepared in editable electronic word-processing format (MS Word) and emailed to: Dr. Yaël Ronen, Academic Editor, ilr@savion.huji.acil
