Communications on other matters such as back numbers (see inside back cover for details), the insertion of leaflets, non-receipt of the Proceedings and permission to reproduce illustrative material from the Proceedings should be addressed to the Administrative Assistant (address below).

COPYRIGHT in the Proceedings rest with the Society. The Society will permit, without the need for specific authorization or payment of a fee, photocopying of

- iii. single copies of individual papers or sections of the Proceedings for the private use of individual researchers;
- iii. single copies of individual papers or section of the Proceedings for library reserve or short-term loan use;
- iii. multiple copies of individual papers or sections of the Proceedings for teaching use, provided that such copies are taken for a non-profit-making institution for educational use within that institution only.

This consent does not extend to copying for general distribution, advertising or promotional purposes, the creation of new collective works, or resale.

RESEARCH FUND. The Society hopes to make one or more awards from the Research Fund in 2011. Applications will be considered from members carrying out research into prehistoric archaeology anywhere in the world. Application forms are available from the Administrative Assistant, The Prehistoric Society, University College London, Institute of Archaeology, 31–34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PY, England email: prehistoric@ucl.ac.uk. The closing date for applications for 2011 is 1 January 2011.

PUBLICATION GRANTS. All papers submitted to the Proceedings are considered entirely on merit but all authors are encouraged to seek funding wherever possible to help offset the cost of production.

The views expressed by the authors are not necessarily those of the Editor or Society.
