

Law & Society Review
BASIC STYLE SHEET

All manuscripts should be typed double spaced on one side only. Rejected manuscripts cannot ordinarily be returned. While manuscripts need not conform to this style sheet at the time of submission, all manuscripts must include footnotes and a list of references, and all accepted manuscripts must be revised by the author to conform to the style of the Review. The rules listed below supplement the manuscript information on the inside front cover of the Review. Authors are urged to consult recent issues of this journal for further illustrations. A more detailed style sheet is available from the editorial office.

1. CITATIONS: All notes that consist merely of supporting citations should be placed in parentheses in the text. They should follow the statement they support and be in the following style:

(last name of author, year: page number or numbers to which you refer, if any)

EXAMPLE: . . . the opposition in Paris (Rudé, 1967: 167).

2. FOOTNOTES: All footnotes should be numbered sequentially and placed immediately after the text. They should contain only substantive comments and additional references not immediately relevant to the text.

3. REFERENCES: References are to be placed at the end of the manuscript and double spaced. For more than one publication by the same author, list them in chronological order beginning with the oldest. For more than one publication in one year by the same author, use small letters to distinguish them (e.g., 1970a; 1970b).

a. BOOKS: LAST NAME, First name (year) Title of book.
City: Publisher.

EXAMPLE: ARNOLD, Thurman W. (1935) The Symbols of Government. New York: Harcourt, Brace and World.

b. ARTICLES: LAST NAME, First name (year) "Title of article," volume number Journal initial page of article (month and day only if each issue is separately paginated).

EXAMPLE: STERN, Curt (1970) "The Continuity of Genetics," 99 Daedalus 882.

4. TABLES AND FIGURES: Tables should approximate the appearance of printed tables. Figures should be camera ready. Tables and/or figures should be placed at the end of the text, after footnotes and references. Their location within the text should be indicated as follows:

Table 1 about here

5. ABSTRACTS: All articles should include an abstract of between 50 and 100 words.

The quality of mercy

PARDONS

Justice, Mercy, and the Public Interest

KATHLEEN DEAN MOORE

Controversy has surrounded the issue of pardons throughout history, from Pontius Pilate's release of Barabbas to President Ford's pardon of Richard Nixon. In a book filled with fascinating historical examples, Kathleen Dean Moore addresses many crucial questions surrounding acts of clemency, including what justifies pardoning power, who should be pardoned, and when is a crime unforgivable. This highly readable volume is the only book-length study of the philosophy of pardons to appear in decades.

The misrule of law

SOCIOLOGICAL JUSTICE

DONALD BLACK

In Sociological Justice, eminent legal sociologist Donald Black challenges the conventional notion that law is primarily an affair of rules and that discrimination is an aberration. Law, he contends, is a social process in which bias is inherent, and modern jurisprudence, with its assumption that like cases will be treated in like fashion, is out of touch with reality. A major contribution to legal scholarship, this thought-provoking volume is essential reading for anyone interested in law and justice in modern society.

Economic and Strategic Issues in U.S. Foreign Policy

Carl-Ludwig Holtfrerich (Freie Universität of Berlin, West Germany), editor

1988. xvi + 297 pages. ISBN 0-89925-535-3. Cloth $39.95

Has the American economy become the Achilles heel of U.S. foreign policy? Will the international commitments and claims of the U.S. to a leadership role in the Western world falter under pressure from economic constraints? Such key economic and strategic issues in U.S. foreign policy are discussed in this volume by a distinguished group of European and American scholars.
