TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four, double-spaced copies. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts are sent to referees anonymously and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration should be used. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five pages. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is provided.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of the AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application.

New and Significant Titles From Allen & Unwin

EDUCATION IN THE SOVIET UNION

Policies and Institutions Since Stalin

Mervyn Matthews

An up-to-date and comprehensive survey of the successes and failures of education and training in the Khrushchev and Brezhnev years based on an objective assessment of the accessibility of the main types of institutions, content of courses, and Soviet attempts to amalgamate their education system to their perceived economic and social needs.
