Encounter

EDITED BY STEPHEN SPENDER AND MELVIN J. LASKY

ENCOUNTER published its 100th number in January 1962. We print below some press comments on this occasion:

THE GUARDIAN

'When a British intellectual monthly sells close on thirty thousand copies something is happening which we thought had gone out with the decline of the great Victorian reviews . . . It has discussed ideas and current affairs with great vigour.'

THE OBSERVER

'I can remember no equivalent of ENCOUNTER's present blend of world politics, sociology and the arts . . . It is easily the most successful magazine of its scope and type, and for my part the most compulsively readable.'

THE TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

'ENCOUNTER has now established itself as one of the most stimulating and wide-awake of all our monthly reviews.'

NEW STATESMAN

'Its list of bombshells is impressive. . . . It must have provoked more cocktail-party conversation than any other comparable magazine of our time.'

YORKSHIRE POST

'To anyone interested in the dominant streams of thought in this country it is indispensable. . . . It preserves a balance between politics and philosophy and literature and the other arts, and, more essentially, expresses an awareness of their interaction on each other.'

TORONTO DAILY STAR

'The one indispensable intellectual magazine.'

ENCOUNTER is now in such demand that a subscription or regular newsagent's order is essential. The annual subscription rates, including postage, are £2 5s. 0d.; U.S.A. & Canada $7.50; India, Pakistan, Ceylon 12 rupees. Subscriptions can be entered directly with ENCOUNTER or with newagents throughout the world. Indian readers can place their orders with Four Oceans Publishers (Private) Ltd., 412 Mirabelle Hotel, Marine Lines, Bombay 1.
