

Psychiatric Bulletin

The Journal of Trends in Psychiatric Practice

February 1995

Volume 19 Number 2

Editorial

- 'Confidential Inquiry into Homicides and Suicides by Mentally Ill People. A Preliminary Report on Homicide'. Paul Bowden 65

Original papers

- Leadership in the mental health service: what role for doctors? J. Reed 67
Resource consumption in psychiatric intensive care: the cost of aggression. C. E. Hyde and C. Harrower-Wilson 73
Neuropsychiatry: a different approach or a different clientele? B. D. M. Scheepers, J. M. Bird and D. G. Rogers 77
An examination of a staff group at a supra-regional deaf unit. D. Hartman and N. Kitson 82
An ethical dilemma in child and adolescent psychiatry. P. J. Graham and D. M. Foreman 84
Patient access to psychiatric records: experience in an in-patient unit. N. Kosky and T. Burns 87

Interview

- Rachel Jenkins in conversation with Rosalind Ramsay 91

Audit

- Job descriptions for consultant posts in psychiatry of old age. C. R. Rodger and J. P. Watts 96

Education

- The administration of general professional training schemes in psychiatry: a three year review. J. L. Herzberg and J. P. Watson 98

Psychiatry and the media

- Mental health, by Jane Austen. J. Harris Hendriks 101
Jones the patient. R. Ramsay 102

Wisdom for psychiatrists

- The magical mind. Larry Culliford 103

Briefings

- The Preliminary Report on Homicides in People with Psychiatric Illness. W. D. Boyd 104
Aftercare: who attends section 117 meetings? R. Lethem 106
Mental health services on Lower North Shore, Sydney. M. Slade 108
Psychiatry at Glastonbury Festival. A. Knight and M. Hughes 111
The stresses of peace-keeping. I. P. Palmer 113
GMC's guidance on confidentiality. J. O'Brien 115

Correspondence

- 116

The College

- 1994 Trainees' Forum: 'Is general psychiatry dead?' F. Gaughran and S. Davies 121

Obituaries

- 123

Miscellany

- 127

Forthcoming events

- 128