THE
REVIEW

Notice to Contributors

1. Articles should be typed in double spacing and on one side of the paper only. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively and typed in double spacing on separate sheets. Greek quotations should be in Greek script and not transliterated.
2. Quotations in English, Latin, French, etc. should be put in single inverted commas, e.g. . . . the phrase 'dux femina facti' has . . .
A quotation within a quoted passage has double inverted commas. Single words or self-contained phrases (such as faute de mieux) may be underlined to indicate italics. The following should not be underlined: ad loc., ap., c., cf., e.g., ibid., i.e., op. cit., s.v., viz.
3. References should normally be given in the footnotes, in the following form:

BOOKS

G.H. Gellie, Sophocles, A Reading (Melbourne 1972), 53-78.

A.D. Trendall, The Red-Figured Vases of Lucania, Campania and Sicily 1 (Oxford 1967), 193-4, or 1. 193-4.

Authors' initials should be stated, at least at their first mention.

ARTICLES

A. S. Henry, 'Euripides, Hippolytos 790-855', CQ 26 (1976), 229-31.

or A. S. Henry (CQ 26 [1976], 229-31).

Both year and volume number should be given.

Abbreviations may follow the style of Marouzeau's L'Année philologique.

ANCIENT AUTHORITIES

Ar. Birds 136; Arist. Nic. Eth. 3.9.7 or Arist. Pol. 1273 a 2; Hom. Il. 5.1 (not E 1); Cic. Phil. 2.19; Quint. 10.1.45; Soph. O. T. 225.

Most single references to ancient authors and documents should be placed in the text, rather than in footnotes.

When a modern work is referred to several times in footnotes, it is preferred that its full title be given only in a preliminary footnote together with the abbreviation by which it will be subsequently mentioned. Frequent use of 'op. cit.' is discouraged. Cross-references inside an article should be kept to a minimum and, if used, the author should indicate the relevant page and line of the type-script.

The following abbreviations should be noted:

CAH 9.536; CIL 6.29271; FG<sup>r</sup>H 115 F 225; PIR<sup>2</sup> C 763; RE 4A.629-753; TLL 6.2878.16.

B.C. should appear after, and A.D. before, the number of the year.
