

AFIR LIFE 2009 MUNICH

Invitation

The Deutsche Aktuarvereinigung (DAV) is delighted to invite you to attend the IIIrd International LIFE Colloquium and the XIXth International AFIR Colloquium which will be held consecutively in Munich, Germany, from Monday, 7 to Friday, 11 September 2009!

Both colloquia are designed to cover topics which will create a stimulating and challenging experience for actuaries as well as scientists and practitioners from all over the world who share an interest in life insurance and the management of financial risks. To build a bridge between both colloquia a joint programme addressing issues of mutual interest will be offered on Wednesday, 9 September 2009.

1st Announcement & Call for Papers

We invite authors to submit papers on all financial topics or actuarial subjects relevant to life insurance. Full details of the 1st Announcement, the colloquium themes and the Call for Papers may be found online at www.actuaries.org/Munich2009. Authors should submit their abstracts by February 28, 2009.

Preregistration

If you are interested in attending the AFIR/LIFE Colloquium 2009 and would like to receive a regular update via electronic mail please send a short email with your contact details to afirlife2009@aktuar.de.

We hope that the AFIR/LIFE Colloquium 2009 has sparked your interest and that you will enrich the event with thought-provoking papers and lively discussions. We are looking forward to meeting you in Munich next year!
