

The Journal of Infectious Diseases

Official publication of the Infectious
Diseases Society of America

For more than a century, The Journal of Infectious Diseases (JID) has been the premier publication in the Western Hemisphere for original research on:

- The pathogenesis, diagnosis, and treatment of infectious diseases;
- The microbes that cause infectious diseases;
- Disorders of host immune mechanisms.

Major articles in JID include research results from microbiology, immunology, epidemiology, and related disciplines. Published twice a month, the Journal responds to rapidly changing research efforts and findings.

THE SOCIETY FOR HEALTHCARE EPIDEMIOLOGY OF AMERICA SEEKS JOURNAL EDITOR

The Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America is seeking candidates for the position of Editor-in-Chief for Infection Control and Hospital Epidemiology (ICHE). The editor of ICHE will chair the editorial advisory board and be supported by the editorial office and the editorial staff; will supervise the editorial content and substance of the journal; will serve as a decision maker in situations involving manuscripts suitable for publication; will serve as the Society's liaison with the publisher, the University of Chicago Press, and assure that services are provided in a manner that promotes ICHE's integrity and the Society's professional reputation; will promote communication among the many individuals involved in the publication; will propose innovation in the journal's content, emphasis, and form; will represent the journal at meetings with organizations and individuals interested in ICHE; will attend Board of Directors, Publication Committee, and Editorial Board meetings as necessary, and provide reports on the progress and activities of the journal.

The candidate will begin his or her term on January 1, 2007 and will serve for a term of five years. At the end of the five-year term, the editor may be reappointed for an additional five-year term without a competitive search.

To apply, please forward a letter of application stating your interest and qualifications, including personal publication experience, editorial experience, special training, computer technology, commitment of support from your institution, and membership in SHEA. Please include your current curriculum vitae. Applications should be sent by July 1, 2006, to David Pegues, MD, SHEA Chair of the Editor Search Taskforce, at 66 Canal Center Plaza, Suite 600, Alexandria, VA 22314. For further information regarding the position and compensation, please contact Annette Mucha, SHEA Executive Director at (703) 684-1006 or sheahq@shea-online.org.

INFECTION CONTROL & HOSPITAL EPIDEMIOLOGY

The Society for Healthcare Epidemiology of America (SHEA) and the University of Chicago Press are pleased to inaugurate a publishing alliance to bring greater visibility to important research in healthcare epidemiology and infection control. Written by and for infection control practitioners, this peer-reviewed journal will provide you with a monthly forum for all your critical research needs.
