ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104, USA, is authorized to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only.

For all other use, permission should be sought from the Cambridge or New York offices of the Cambridge University Press.

Notes for contributors. The top (ribbon) copy of the typescript should be submitted. This must be double spaced with margins of at least 1". Footnotes, bibliographies, appendixes and indented quotations must also be double spaced.

Tables, graphs, diagrams and music examples must be supplied on separate sheets. Illustrations should be in the form of good black and white glossy prints, ideally measuring 203 mm × 153 mm (8" × 6"). All illustrative material should be numbered and carefully keyed into the typescript. Captions should be typed double spaced on separate sheets. Contributors who wish to reproduce photographs should provide good black and white prints, full details of the source and the full address of the copyright holder if this differs. Photographs will not normally be considered unless they are an intrinsic part of the contribution and their inclusion will always be at the discretion of the editors. The full address of the copyright holder should also be provided for any other material (such as music examples/lyrics) used in which the contributor does not hold copyright.

Bibliographical material. The method of citation is author-date system (Smith 1980, p. 66), which should be given in the text rather than in footnotes; full references should be listed at the end of each article. Abbreviations for the names of periodicals, libraries etc. should not be used without explanation. For more detailed matters of style please follow the practices of A Manual of Style, 12th edn (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1969).

The Hidden Musicians

Music-making in an English Town

RUTH FINNEGAN

This fascinating study of local music in the modern English town of Milton Keynes documents and studies the activities of groups such as the amateur classical orchestras, church choirs, brass bands, Gilbert and Sullivan societies, and the musicians playing in the jazz, rock, folk, and country and western traditions. Ruth Finnegan's unique ethnography demonstrates the active and continuing role local part-time musicians and their supporters play in modern urban society. £35.00 net 0 521 36066 8 416 pp.
