Editors

Robert McCorquodale, Director of BIICL
Catherine Redgwell, University College London, UK

International & Comparative Law Quarterly (ICLQ) publishes papers on public and private international law and also comparative law. It has maintained its pre-eminence as one of the earliest and most important journals of its kind, encompassing human rights and European law. The journal encourages innovative and original articles that explore the interconnectedness between the legal subject areas, moving across the boundaries that divide the law in a way that provides vital analysis at a time when formal distinctions, in scholarship and between jurisdictions, are becoming less relevant.

Editor-in-Chief

P. Vlas, Free University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) addresses relevant topics and recent trends in international law and the conflict of laws, including their comparative legal aspects. Articles are combined with English-language reports on topical Dutch judicial decisions, survey of the case law on the topic of civil jurisdiction and enforcement of judgments in Europe, an update on the current developments regarding The Hague's international tribunals, an overview of the Hague Conventions on Private International Law, book reviews, and occasionally, a short commentary on case law or legislation.
