The Foreign Policy Bulletin is a reference periodical published bimonthly by Kluwer Law International. Its purpose is to make available a timely and systematic record of United States foreign policy.

Each issue is indexed and there is an annual index at the end of each volume.

In addition to major addresses, statements, and other public reports and remarks of the President, Secretary of State, and Administration officials in other foreign affairs agencies, the Foreign Policy Bulletin includes excerpts from pivotal debates in the Congress; speeches and other statements by foreign and international officials; relevant texts and reports from international organizations; summaries and listings of treaties and other agreements to which the United States is a party; and other information of particular interest to the study of U.S. foreign relations.

The Foreign Policy Bulletin is not affiliated with any government or international institution, and has complete editorial autonomy.

Most of the contents of this publication are official documents. The compilation of these materials is copyrighted and permission must be obtained to reproduce or reprint numerous pages or entire sections of an issue. Individual documents are in the public domain and may be reprinted; citation of the Foreign Policy Bulletin is appreciated. Permission to reproduce copyrighted materials from other sources (including photographs) must be obtained from the original source.

INDEXING: Included in the PAIS (Public Affairs Information Service) indexes: the PAIS Bulletin, PAIS on CD-Rom, and online through Dialog, BRS, and Data Star.
