Newcomen Awards in Business History

For the best article published in the Business History Review during the previous year the Society will award a prize of $300 and a scroll. For the best article published in the Business History Review during the previous year by a graduate student or a recent Ph.D. who has not published a book in business history, the Society will award a special prize of $150 and a scroll. Criteria for selection include: originality, value, breadth, and interest of contribution, quality of research materials and methods, and quality of presentation.

Winners will be selected by a panel of judges consisting of the editors and the members of the advisory board of the Business History Review, none of whom shall be eligible to receive a prize. The awards are administered by the editorial office of the Review. No special prize will be awarded in years when, in the opinion of the judges, no eligible article suitable for the prize was published, and no person may be awarded both prizes in any one year.

PRESENTED BY THE NEWCOMEN
SOCIETY IN NORTH AMERICA

Thomas Newcomen Book Award in Business History

The Newcomen Society in North America, in cooperation with the Business History Review, will award in 1982 the seventh in a series of triennial prizes consisting of $1000 and a scroll for the best book on the history of business published in the United States during the years 1979-1981. "Business history" is defined in its broadest sense to include not only the history of firms or industries, but books tracing interactions of businessmen, analyses of business philosophy or behavior, and studies of the adjustment of businesses and businessmen to their economic, political, and social environments. Criteria for selection will include contribution to knowledge, depth of analysis, soundness of reasoning, clarity of style and organization, and general readability and format.

Judges for the 1982 award are Dr. Albro Martin, Oglesby Professor of the American Heritage, Bradley University; Dr. Alfred D. Chandler, Jr., Straus Professor of Business History, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration; and Mr. Stanley van den Heuvel, The Newcomen Society in North America.

Regulation in Perspective

Historical Essays

Thomas K. McCraw, Editor

Thomas K. McCraw reexamines the corporate revolution 1880-1920 and the antitrust response to it; Morton Keller reinterprets the evolution of American regulatory law; Ellis Hawley analyzes industrial policy during the 1920s; Samuel P. Hays discusses arenas of political choice in regulatory administration; and David Vogel compares American and foreign regulatory systems.

WHO REGULATES THE REGULATORS?

In two thought-provoking new books from Harvard, experts in business-government relations approach the American regulatory experience from their distinct perspectives.

Regulation and Its Reform

Stephen Breyer

In a book that will become the bible of regulatory reform, Judge Stephen Breyer takes a comprehensive look at important areas of regulation: health and safety; environmental pollution; trucking; airlines; natural gas; public utilities, and more.

"A book of central importance in the growing national debate over government regulation. Breyer was the key intellectual and practical architect of the bipartisan regulatory reform movement in Congress in the 1970s. His new book sets out a comprehensive framework that, more than any other, is likely to shape the future course of the issue in the 1980s."

— Senator Edward M. Kennedy

"This treatise is the best hidden agenda for effective regulatory reform."

— Paul W. MacAvoy

"I have no doubt that if Congress and the regulators were to take the teachings of this book seriously, we would be much better off than we are now." — Edmund W. Kitch

THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC ENTERPRISE SERIES

An
EMERGING
AMERICAN ECONOMY
1815-1875

Edited by Joseph R. Frese, S.J. and Jacob Judd

The effort to create new and innovative transportation networks, manufacturing facilities, and competitive business enterprises provided vast opportunities for businessmen to play dominant roles in the development of an independent American economy in the nineteenth century. The essays in this volume examine various aspects of business enterprise in that age of rapid advancement.

Clothbound, 224 pages, notes, index, $20.00.

Business Enterprise
in Early New York

Edited by Joseph R. Frese, S.J., and Jacob Judd

The private enterprise system of the American economy originated with the traders, businessmen, and speculators of the Colonial period. In this volume, a distinguished group of scholars examines the roots of American economic enterprise in early New York.

Clothbound, 224 pages, notes, index, $17.50.

An Emerging Independent American Economy: 1815-1875 and Business Enterprise in Early New York are the first volumes in The American Economic Enterprise Series, which seeks to foster a better understanding of how an enterprising populace helped in the creation of an expanding American economy. A third volume, American Industrialization, Economic Expansion, and The Law, will be published in Fall, 1981.
