Irish Yearbook of International Law Volume 7, 2012 Edited by Fiona de Londras and Siobhán Mullally

The Irish Yearbook of International Law (IYIL) supports research into Ireland's practice in international affairs and foreign policy, filling a gap in existing legal scholarship and assisting in the dissemination of Irish thinking and practice on matters of international law. Publication of the Irish Yearbook of International Law makes Irish practice and opinio juris more readily available to Governments, academics and international bodies when determining the content of international law. In providing a forum for the documentation and analysis of North-South relations the Yearbook also makes an important contribution to post-conflict and transitional justice studies internationally. Further details of the IYIL can be seen at: www.hartjournals.co.uk/iyl/

Constitutional Crisis in the European Constitutional Area Theory, Law and Politics in Hungary and Romania Edited by Armin von Bogdandy and Pal Sonnevend

The concept of a European Constitutional Area has been used in legal scholarship to describe a common space of constitutionalism where national and international constitutional guarantees interact to maintain the common constitutional values of Europe. This concept has not yet been tested in a case where the constitutional order of a Member State of the European Union seems to develop serious deficiencies. The present volume aims to assess recent constitutional developments in Hungary and Romania, as well as the interplay of national, international and European constitutionalism which react to the loopholes in national constitutions.

Globalisation, Criminal Law and Criminal Justice Theoretical, Comparative and Transnational Perspectives Edited by Valsamis Mitsilegas, Peter Alldridge and Leonidas Cheliotis

This book consists of the keynote papers delivered at the 2012 WG Hart Workshop on Globalisation, Criminal Law and Criminal Justice organised by the Queen Mary Criminal Justice Centre. The volume addresses from a cross-disciplinary perspective the multifarious relationship between globalisation on the one hand, and criminal law and justice on the other hand.

Antarctica in International Law Edited by Ben Saul and Tim Stephens

Antarctica, one of the world's last great wildernesses, presents special challenges for international law. Fears that Antarctica would become a front in the Cold War catalysed agreement on the 1959 Antarctic Treaty which neither legitimized nor challenged the existing sovereign claims to the continent. The unique Antarctic Treaty System has provided the foundation for peaceful, harmonious and effective governance. There are, however, new anxieties about the frozen continent and the Southern Ocean. Antarctica already feels the effects of climate change and ocean acidification. Claimant states assert rights to the Antarctic continental shelf and interest in Antarctic resources grows. Tourism brings new environmental and safety risks. China and other powers are increasing their activities, with some questioning the consensus of the 'Antarctic club'. Security concerns are increasingly discussed, despite Antarctica's dedication to peaceful purposes. This book brings together the main primary international materials concerning the regulation and governance of Antarctica, including multilateral and bilateral treaties, United Nations materials, 'soft laws', and judicial decisions. It covers the spectrum of Antarctic issues from environmental protection to scientific cooperation to tourism. As it shows, Antarctic law has constantly adapted to meet new challenges and is a sophisticated, inclusive, dynamic and responsive regime.

The Law and Practice of Expulsion and Exclusion from the United Kingdom Deportation, Removal, Exclusion and Deprivation of Citizenship General Editor Eric Fripp Deputy Editors Rowena Moffatt and Ellis Wilford

From the Foreword by Lord Hope of Craighead KT
“...deserves to be on the bookshelves of all those who seek to practise within this carefully defined area of immigration and nationality law.”

This book, which focusses on the law and practice governing deportation, removal and exclusion from the United Kingdom, the refusal of naturalisation, and deprivation of British citizenship, represents the first attempt by practitioners to assess the law and practice in these areas as a cohesive area of state activity.

International Legal Materials

A subscription to ILM, which is published online and in print, consists of six issues over the course of 12 months from time of payment. ASIL members receive free online access to the two most recent years' issues of ILM and may add on a print subscription to ILM at a discounted rate.

Published every other month since 1962, International Legal Materials (ILM) reproduces primary international legal documents reflecting the broad scope and evolution of international law. Materials are selected – with the advice of the ILM Editorial Advisory Committee and the ILM Corresponding Editors – for their usefulness to scholars, practitioners, and business and government officials. Each issue contains the full texts of important treaties and agreements, judicial and arbitral decisions, national legislation, international organizations resolutions, and other documents.

Howard M. Holtzmann Research Center for the Study of International Arbitration and Conciliation

The Howard M. Holtzmann Research Center for the Study of International Arbitration and Conciliation was established by the American Society of International (ASIL) to serve as an education and research forum for individuals interested in international dispute resolution. Building on the Society's recognized expertise in this growing field, the Center will serve as an indispensable research and education resource, providing cutting-edge, expert information and analysis on significant issues and current developments in the international arbitration field. Center activities will include:

- Collection of research materials on international arbitration, including Judge Holtzmann's personal library and papers;
- A regular program of events, including a speaker series with leading figures and continuing legal education courses on hot topics in the field; and
- Working groups and task forces convened to address the key challenges and emerging issues relating to international arbitration.

The Center is conveniently located at the Society's headquarters and is open to everyone interested in learning more about international arbitration and conciliation.

For more information about the Center and its upcoming programs, please contact D. Wes Rist at dwrisk@asil.org.

The ASIL Holtzmann Center is established in honor of Judge Howard M. Holtzmann. Over the course of his career, Judge Holtzmann has made enormous contributions to the field of international arbitration and conciliation, and mentored scores of young lawyers working in the field. He was central to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) work with the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce to build an East-West bridge through international arbitration. Notable achievements include: service as a member of the U.S. delegation to the Arbitration Working Group of the UN Commission on International Trade Law (1974-2011), which produced the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules, and the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, and service as a Member of the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal (1981-1994). For his pioneering work, the King of Sweden inducted Judge Holtzmann as a Commander of the Royal Order of the Polar Star in 2003. In 2005, he received the Silver Medal of Honor of Vienna, and in 2006, the AAA gave him its highest honor, the Peacemaker Award, for his "work to further peace throughout the world." Judge Holtzmann has been a member of ASIL since 1972.
