Archaeological dialogues is a refereed journal aiming at the promotion of theoretically oriented approaches which go beyond traditional archaeological perspectives and consider a wide range of historical, social and philosophical issues. It shuns narrow chronological and regional limits and emphasises the importance of theoretical engagement and methodological debate. Archaeological Dialogues includes discussion articles, review essays and in-depth interviews, which encourage debate and critical analysis.

Subscriptions

Archaeological dialogues (ISSN 1380-2038) is published twice a year in June and December. Two parts form a volume. The subscription price which includes delivery by air where appropriate (but excluding VAT) of volume 17 is £85 (US $152 in USA, Canada and Mexico) for institutions (print and electronic); £77 (US $136) for institutions (electronic only); £36 (US $62) for individuals (print only); £25 (US $44) for students (print only). EU subscribers (outside the UK) who are not registered for VAT should add VAT at their country's rate. VAT registered members should provide their VAT registration number.
