INSTITUTE NOTES

OBJECTS OF THE INSTITUTE

The aim of The Royal Institute of Philosophy is to promote the study of philosophy. It pursues this aim by holding lectures, by providing its members with advice on philosophical reading, and by publishing a quarterly journal, PHILOSOPHY, in which philosophical problems are discussed, and new books reviewed, by writers whose care it is to make themselves understood by the public at large as well as by their professional colleagues. The term 'philosophy' covers a wide group of studies, and has been differently pursued at different times. The Royal Institute of Philosophy interprets 'philosophy' as covering ethics, aesthetics, metaphysics, logic, philosophy of science, political and social philosophy, philosophy of religion, philosophy of history, philosophy of education and the philosophies of mind and language. The Institute is not committed to any school or method, but seeks to provide a forum for the rational discussion of questions in all these fields.

The Institute welcomes as members all those who are interested in philosophical problems, irrespective of their professional qualifications.

The annual subscription to the Institute is £1 10s. or $5.00. Members receive the Institute's Journal, PHILOSOPHY, published quarterly, and may, of course, attend the Lectures.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Associate Membership is open to non-graduate students at the Universities for a period not exceeding three years, at the rate of 15s. a year. It is also open to research students, provided the research period is continuous with the undergraduate period.

Applications for membership should be made to the Secretary at 14 Gordon Square, London, W.C.1.

CENTRES

There are Centres at the University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the University College of North Wales, Bangor, and the University of South California at Los Angeles.

INSTITUTE NOTICES

DEATH OF MR SYDNEY ERNEST HOOPER, O.B.E., M.A.

Members who knew Mr Hooper will have heard of his death with a deep sense of loss. The Institute was represented at his funeral on 10th February by Professor H. D. Lewis and Professor H. H. Price. An obituary notice appeared in The Times on 12th February. A tribute to Mr Hooper will appear in the July number of PHILOSOPHY.
