Culture and Political Crisis in Vienna

Christian Socialism in Power, 1897-1918

John W. Boyer

In this sequel to Political Radicalism in Late Imperial Vienna, Boyer picks up the history of the Christian Social movement after founder Karl Lueger's rise to power in Vienna in 1897 and traces its evolution from a group of disparate ward politicians, through its maturation into the largest single party in the Austrian parliament by 1907, to its major role in Imperial politics during the First World War.

The War of the Austrian Succession

Reed S. Browning

"At long last we have a thoroughly researched and comprehensive history of the War of the Austrian Succession. Professor Browning has written a witty and engaging narrative that turns the volume's size into a real plus for students and scholars of military and diplomatic history. This is good, old-fashioned history at its best."

— CHARLES INGRAO, PURDUE UNIVERSITY

"If you like old-fashioned history — sovereigns and statesmen making policy, ambassadors conspiring at court to create or undo alliances and treaties, generals plotting maneuver and battle — then this book is for you."

— KARL A. ROIDER, SLAVIC REVIEW

Reed S. Browning provides a highly readable narrative of a complex period that fundamentally shaped the European state system. He explores the often-changing war aims of the major belligerents — Austria, France, Great Britain, Prussia, Piedmont-Sardinia, and Spain — and links diplomatic and military events to the political and social context from which they arose.

»Sieches Volk macht siechen Staat«. Arzt, Stand und Staat im 19. Jahrhundert

von Thomas N. Burg

- Inspiriert vom Unbehagen an einer technoiden Schulmedizin untersucht der Autor einen Aspekt der Professionalisierungsstrategien der Ärzteschaft. Mitten in den Raum institutioneller, sozialer, politischer und wissenschaftlicher Neudefinitionen plazierte der Arzt seinen Geltungsanspruch. Um die Mitte des 19. Jahrhunderts konvergieren die Interessen einer 'Berufsgruppe' und des 'Staates' und formen die Grundlagen einer über hundert Jahre währenden Suprematie der Ärzteschaft in Sachen Körper. Die Strategien dieser Konsolidierung werden anhand einer Analyse der Standespresse, vor dem Hintergrund der Medizinalgesetze in Österreich, untersucht. (ISBN 3-901126-26-0)

Demnächst in unserem Programm: die Reihe MEDIZIN, KULTUR UND GESELLSCHAFT – sozial- und kulturgeschichtliche Studien, deren Folie der 'medikale' Zugriff auf den Körper darstellt.
