Africa Bibliography

Editor

Terry Barringer, Wolfson College, Cambridge, United Kingdom

This large and authoritative guide to works in African studies has been published under the auspices of the International African Institute annually since 1984. From 2011 a fully searchable, consolidated bibliography will be available to subscribers online.

The Africa Bibliography includes a wide range of material: monographs, chapters in edited volumes, journal articles, and pamphlets. It covers all regions of Africa, including North Africa. It lists works published in English as well as a number of other languages: Portuguese, French, Italian, German, Swahili, Spanish and Afrikaans. The bibliography categorises by region, country and subject. It includes an author index and a detailed thematic index. Publications principally in the social and environmental sciences, humanities and arts, and some items from the medical, biological and natural sciences are recorded.

The bibliography includes materials on Africa published in non-specialist scholarly journals, in addition to specialist Africa publications. As an annual publication, it records the previous year's published work in its field, with provision for retrospective inclusion of earlier items. It is prepared in association with the International African Institute's journal Africa.

Africa: Journal of the International African Institute

Published on behalf of the International African Institute

Editors

Karin Barber, University of Birmingham, UK
David Pratten, University of Oxford, UK

Africa is the premier journal devoted to the study of African societies and culture. Published as the journal of the International African Institute, editorial policy encourages an interdisciplinary approach, involving humanities, social sciences, and environmental sciences.

Africa aims to give increased attention to African production of knowledge, highlighting the work of local African thinkers and writers, emerging social and cultural trends 'on the ground', and links between local and national levels of society. At the same time, it maintains its commitment to the theoretically informed analysis of the realities of Africa's own cultural categories. Each issue contains five or six major articles, arranged thematically, extensive review essays and substantial book reviews. Special issues are published annually.

JOURNALS

Journal of Modern African Studies

Editor

Christopher Clapham, University of Cambridge, UK

The Journal of Modern African Studies offers a quarterly survey of developments in modern African politics and society. Its main emphasis is on current issues in African politics, economies, societies and international relations. It is intended not only for students and academic specialists, but also for general readers and practitioners with a concern for modern Africa, living and working both inside and outside the continent. Editorial policy avoids commitment to any political viewpoint or ideology, but aims at a fair examination of controversial issues in order to promote a deeper understanding of what is happening in Africa today. The journal also includes an invaluable book review section.

AFRICA BIBLIOGRAPHY 2012

Works on Africa published during 2012

Edited by T. A. Barringer

This authoritative guide to published works in African studies has been published annually since 1984. The Africa Bibliography includes a wide range of material: books, articles in journals, and book chapters, covering the whole of Africa. It lists works published in a number of languages, such as Portuguese, French and German, as well as English; categorises by region, country and subject; and includes an author index and a detailed thematic index. The Africa Bibliography records publications on Africa of interest to students of Africa, principally in the social and environmental sciences, humanities and arts; though some items from the medical, biological and natural sciences, likely to be of interest to a reader from a social science/arts background are included. This annual publication records the previous year's work in its field, with provision for retrospective inclusion of earlier items. It is prepared in association with the International African Institute's journal Africa.

T.A. Barringer is a bibliographer who has worked for many years on African and Commonwealth materials.

The Africa Bibliography is available as a fully searchable database of all volumes published from 1990 to date.

The screenshot shows the Africa Bibliography website interface. At the top, it says 'CAMBRIDGE JOURNALS' and 'Home Contact Us Accessibility'. The main header features 'Africa Bibliography' and 'IAI' with a map of Africa. Below the header, there is a search section with 'Quick Search', 'Full Search', and 'Browse' tabs. The 'Full Search' tab is active, showing a search criteria form with fields for 'Keyword', 'Region', 'Country', and 'Subject', each with a dropdown menu and an 'AND' button. There are also 'Add Search Criteria' and 'Add Restriction' buttons. A 'Restrict your search by year of publication' section has 'From' and 'To' dropdown menus. At the bottom of the search section are 'Reset', 'Set brackets', and 'Search the database' buttons. On the right side, there is a 'LINKS' section with links to 'Home', 'Guide to the Bibliography', 'Introductory Articles', 'About the Compiler', 'Subscription Options', and 'Request Institutional Trial'. Below the links, there is a section for 'Access provided by Faculty of Classics, University of Cambridge' and 'Access to 2004 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009'.
