NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

Modern Asian Studies is concerned with the history, geography, politics, sociology, literature, economics and social anthropology of South Asia, South-East Asia, China and Japan. Contributions should be based on original research or field-work.

All articles (text, notes and references) must be clearly typed in double spacing throughout, including footnotes, on one side only of the paper—preferably A4. Two copies should be submitted. Spelling, dates, references and footnote numbers should be checked for accuracy. The use of diacritical marks, italics and capital letters should be kept to a minimum. References repeated in the footnotes should be by author and short title; or the Harvard system of citation may be used.

The title of the article and the author's name and affiliation should be typed on a separate page at the beginning of the article.

Tables should be clearly laid out and numbered consecutively. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted. All figures and totals should be checked for accuracy.

Maps and figures should be clearly legible in every detail. The spelling of place names should be consistent with that used in the text.

Every table, map and figure should have a title and at least one reference in the text to indicate its location.

First proofs only will be sent to the author who will be expected to return them to the Editor within three days. Excessive alterations and additions may be charged to the author.

Each author will receive twenty-five free offprints of his article and a copy of the part of the journal in which it appears.

Submission of an article will be taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not on offer to any other publisher. In the interests of authors, copyright is normally assigned to Cambridge University Press. The editor welcomes expression of all shades of opinion, but responsibility for them rests with their authors.

All correspondence should be addressed to Dr Gordon Johnson, Selwyn College, Cambridge CB3 9DG, England.

THE INDIAN ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL HISTORY REVIEW

Editor: DHARMA KUMAR

The Indian Economic and Social History Review offers scholars a major forum for an interdisciplinary study of the social and economic history of India, and South Asia more generally. Articles published in this journal also cover other Asian countries and provide comparative perspectives with a wider geographic spread. The journal is periodically organised around a specific theme as a special number. In addition to research articles, the book review section often contains substantial review articles. Bibliographic surveys, which also cover material available in Indian languages, are a special feature.

The Indian Economic and Social History Review has established itself as indispensable reading for anyone concerned with the history, economy and society of India, and is of interest to those concerned with world development and history in general.

Recent articles published in IESHR include:

MINOTI CHAKRAVARTY KAUL The Commons, Community and the Courts of Colonial Punjab

ALOKA PARASHER Nature of Society and Civilisation in Early Deccan

PADMINI SWAMINATHAN State Intervention in Industrialisation: A Case Study of the Madras Presidency

BIDYUT MOHANTY Migration, Famines and Sex Ratio in Orissa Division Between 1881 and 1921

CHRISTOPHE Z GUILMOTO Towards a New Demographic Equilibrium: The Inception of Demographic Transition in South India

SANJAY SUBRAHAMANYAM The Mughal State—Structure or Process? Reflections on Recent Western Historiography

ALOK SHEEL Long-term Demographic Trends in South Bihar: Gaya and Shahabad Districts, 1811-1921

CONTRIBUTIONS TO INDIAN SOCIOLOGY

Editors: VEENA DAS, RAMACHANDRA GUHA,
DIPANKAR GUPTA & PATRICIA UBEROI

Contributions to Indian Sociology is the pre-eminent forum for the presentation of research material on Indian and South Asian societies and cultures and for the discussion of different approaches to their study. The journal publishes neither purely theoretical essays nor purely ethnographic accounts but favours papers in which data and theory are mutually related. Occasionally papers dealing with themes of cross-civilizational significance, bringing in data from non-South Asian societies are also published.

Contributions to Indian Sociology is an indispensable and highly regarded forum for the understanding of South Asian society, culture and religion and provides theoretical insights applicable to the study of other developing societies as well.

Recent articles published in Contributions to Indian Sociology include:

STEVE DERNE Commonsense Understandings as Cultural Constraint

DIPANKAR GUPTA Ethnic Images and their Correlative Spaces: An Essay on Some Aspects of Sikh Identity and Perceptions in Contemporary Punjab

VEENA DAS Time, Self, and Community: Features of the Sikh Militant Discourse

DEEPAK MEHTA The Semiotics of Weaving: A Case Study

BIKRAM NARAYAN NANDA Vernacular Work, Wage Labour and Tribal Development: A Case Study of Highland Orissa

INDIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE

Editor-in-Chief: MOONIS RAZA

The Indian Journal of Social Science has been launched by the Indian Council of Social Science Research to disseminate analytical discussion and research findings on themes and issues such as the problems of development and social change, the interface between science, society, culture and technology, and the comprehension of future patterns of development.

The Indian Journal of Social Science articulates rigorous scientific discussion on these diverse concerns of social science research--from comparative research, innovative approaches and the analysis and implications of accepted paradigms and their alternatives, to the understanding of the diverse and complex social and economic issues facing developing countries.

Recent articles published in The Indian Journal of Social Science include:

MAHENDRA PRASAD SINGH From Hegemony to Multi-Level Federalism? India's Parliamentary-Federal System

L M BHOLE Environmental Protection Through Sustainable Social Order

ASHA KHOPKAR Awareness of the Dimensions of the Population Explosion and Awareness of the Means of Family Planning among Lower Socio-economic Class Women in Pune, India

Contemporary South Asia presents research and analysis on contemporary policy issues in South Asia. The journal focuses on issues concerning the region that are not circumscribed by the national borders of the states. While national perspectives are not ignored, the journal's overriding purpose is to encourage scholars within South Asia and in the global community to search for means (both theoretical and practical) by which our understanding of the present problems of cooperation and confrontation in the region can be enhanced.
