The Best of Both Worlds?

A Challenge on Development Policies in Africa

GUY HUNTER

These essays challenge the basic assumptions on which European, particularly British, aid policies in tropical Africa have been based, and offer some radical alternatives.

Edward Wilmot Blyden 1832-1912

Pan-Negro Patriot

HOLLIS R. LYNCH

The African personality, Pan-Africanism and négritude are all concepts which developed under the stimulus of Blyden's thinking. This study of his life throws new light on West African and American Negro history in the late nineteenth century. 2 plates 42s net

West African History Series

Afrikaner and African Nationalism

South African Parallels and Parameters

EDWIN S. MUNGER

Both aspects of nationalism in South Africa are here re-examined in the light of the sweeping 1966 electoral gains of the National Party, the development of Bantustans, and the accession to power of Mr Vorster. 1 map 25s net

The Middle Age of African History

Edited by ROLAND OLIVER

This collection of essays follows the success of The Dawn of African History (13s 6d net) in introducing key periods in the history of Africa. The volume covers the whole period from the Arab invasions of the seventh century to the arrival of the European settlers in the nineteenth century. 7 maps 13s 6d net

South West Africa and its Human Issues

JOHN H. WELLINGTON

The result of over forty years of intensive study of the political, economic, and racial conditions of Southern Africa, this book presents the human issues of the mandated territory from three angles: the geographical, the historical, and the political. 13 plates, 19 text figures 84s net

The Afrikaner Bond

The History of a South African Political Party 1880-1911

T. R. H. DAVENPORT

The history of the first real political party to emerge in South Africa, the Afrikaner Bond. Though at first mainly a Cape Colonial party, after the unification of South Africa it formed the nucleus of the South African National Party. 8 plates 2 maps 92s net

The Cape Parliament 1854-1910

J. L. MCCRACKEN

A study of the way in which the origin, nature, and outlook of the Cape Parliament was affected by the peculiar circumstances of an expanding colony with a constantly growing non-European population. 2 plates 4 maps 28s net
