

"His larger outline of the cresting of an identity is an important gift to the reader open to receiving it."—Kirkus Reviews

The Rise of English Nationalism

A Cultural History 1740-1830

GERALD NEWMAN, Kent State University

This ground-breaking work presents a major new interpretation of English cultural, social, intellectual, literary and political change. Newman argues that England was the first country to witness the birth of modern nationalism and that this constituted a tremendous power operating to transform every aspect of life. "Newman's scholarship is prodigious. . . . He brings together so many disparate elements in a series of syntheses that nearly everything looks a bit different from what we previously thought it was. This is probably the highest form of scholarship attainable"

—Leon Guilhamet, CCNY. "A brilliant piece of work."—Kenneth Minogue, London School of Economics

0-312-68247-6

320 pp.

$27.50

St. Martin's Press

Scholarly and Reference Books • 175 Fifth Avenue • New York, NY 10010 (800) 221-7945 • (212) 674-5151

This Publication is available in Microform.

University Microfilms International

Please send additional information

for _____
(name of publication)

Name _____

Institution _____

Street _____

City _____

State _____ Zip _____

300 North Zeeb Road
Dept. P.R.
Ann Arbor, Mi. 48106

Announcing...

ASSESSING THE 1984 ULYSSES

Edited by C. George Sandulescu and Clive Hart. Preface by Anthony Burgess. An international conference was convened in Monaco in 1985 to scrutinize the Munich "error-free" edition of Ulysses and to judge the validity of the changes incorporated. This book contains the conclusions of such outstanding Joyce scholars as Richard Ellmann, Clive Hart, and David Hayman. 247 pp. / $28.50

DICKENS IN SEARCH OF HIMSELF

Recurrent Themes and Characters in the Work of Charles Dickens

Gwen Watkins. An original and persuasive psychological interpretation of Dickens's works approached as a unified whole. The author contends that Dickens used certain recurrent themes in his works to reveal and overcome the buried traumatic experiences of his childhood. 164 pp. / $25.00

PRETENDERS TO THE ENGLISH THRONE

Jeremy Potter. A fascinating account of the alternative kings and queens of England from the 11th to the 19th centuries. The author recounts the often bizarre stories of the men and women who claimed the crown but failed to succeed, including such also-rans as John of Gaunt, Empress Matilda, Lambert Simnel, Mary Queen of Scots, and Bonnie Prince Charlie. 224 pp. / $25.00

THE PAGAN CELTS

The Creators of Europe

Anne Ross. In this expanded and updated edition of a modern classic, one of the foremost authorities on ancient Celtic civilization presents a comprehensive examination of the culture, daily life, and spiritual beliefs of the pre-Christian Celtic world. Includes new information based on recent archaeological finds. Illustrated. 192 pp. / $29.95

THE ORIGINS OF ENGLAND 410-600 A.D.

Martyn J. Whittock. The first modern study to give a comprehensive overview of the crucial period of migration and settlement that can be seen as the beginning of English history. Using the latest archaeological and historical findings, the author traces the decay of Roman Britain; the arrival of the English; and the society, religion, and arts of the settlers. 288 pp. / $31.50

THE TUDOR COURT

David Loades. A fascinating portrait of the English royal court from the accession of Edward IV to the death of Elizabeth I that focuses on all aspects of life, power, and patronage at the center of government. The author examines how dynamic rulers such as Henry VIII made the Tudor court into a symbol of culture and grandeur. 272 pp. / $30.00.

Write for our complete catalog

BARNES & NOBLE BOOKS

81 ADAMS DRIVE • TOTOWA, NEW JERSEY 07512

Historical & Literary ...

VICTORIAN BLOOMSBURY

The Early Literary History of the Bloomsbury Group, Volume I

S.P. Rosenbaum "has written a wonderful account of the ideas and people who were the early influences on the Bloomsbury Group. He sees the modern period not as the age of 'great men', but in a new light, where original ideas about art, women and society, as they affected and continue to affect writing, painting, thought, politics, had their beginning."—Carolyn Heilbrun, Columbia U.

"A subtle and powerful picture of the Bloomsbury Group..."—Richard Ellmann

0-312-84051-9 298 pp. $24.95

WAR, TAXATION, AND REBELLION IN EARLY TUDOR ENGLAND

Henry VIII, Wolsey, and the Amicable Grant of 1525

G.W. Bernard. "This careful study of a single grant of 1525 becomes the vehicle for surveying many aspects of Henry VIII's reign. Bernard treats foreign policy, the working relationship between Henry and Wolsey, the attitude toward the cardinal of great clerics and nobles, the ability of Tudor government to command the assistance of its subjects, the reactions of subjects of all ranks to demands made upon them, and, finally, the causes and the consequences of this failed 1525 grant. Bernard draws heavily upon primary sources and frequently offers new interpretations..."—Choice

0-312-85611-3 164 pp. $32.50

THE FIRST ENGLISH FEMINIST

Reflections on Marriage and Other Writings by Mary Astell

Bridget, Hill, Editor. "... [This] fine new anthology of Astell's works ... means for the first time that Mary Astell lives outside the rare book library ... Hill allows us to read Astell's feminism in its historical and ideological contexts; she excerpts generously, and omits nothing essential. [The book] shows the range of Astell's work—her poetry and religious writings, as well as her political concerns."—The Women's Review of Books

0-312-29232-5 243 pp. $29.95

BRITAIN'S INVESTMENT OVERSEAS ON THE EVE OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR

The Use and Abuse of Numbers

D.C.M. Platt. While a great deal has been published on Britain's overseas investment during the half-century before the First World War, no realistic figure exists for the sum of British overseas investment activity on the eve of World War I. This study attaches a realistic dimension to such a number by taking into account the main approaches of previous estimates, the motives that underlie them, and the conclusions that have been derived from them.

0-312-09673-9 191 pp. $29.95

REFORM AND REVIVAL

English Government in Ireland 1470–1534

Steven G. Ellis. "... as a leading authority in the field, [Ellis] convincingly argues that English government was not so moribund, nor were the Cromwellian reforms of the 1530s so significant as has been suggested.... By comparing the administration of Ireland with that of the north, Ellis offers fresh insights into both the nature of early modern English government and the origins of Anglo-Irish relations. Highly recommended..."—Choice

0-312-66751-5 236 $32.50

ROMAN BRITAIN

A Sourcebook

S. Ireland. This book brings together for the first time in English the numerous disparate sources on Roman Britain. It presents a wide range of literary, epigraphic and numismatic evidence on Britain's involvement with the Roman Empire. "This useful collection, especially of obscure and late authors and of inscriptions and coins, is of inestimable value in these days of Latin-less (and Greek-less) students and enthusiasts, whose need for ancient (documentary) evidence is critical. Material is arranged by geography, historical events and sequence, and topic (e.g., religion, commerce, society.)" —Choice

0-312-68964-0 266 pp. $25.00

Perspectives

MARGARET OLIPHANT

A Critical Biography

Merryn Williams. "To [Oliphant's] story of perpetual struggle... Dr. Williams has added a valuable analysis of the major novels.... [an] excellent biography."—Daily Telegraph
"Williams draws a compelling picture of the familial, social, and economic forces shaping the career of a woman who was 'much more prolific than any other Victorian with any claim to distinction'.... This book will make the reader want to know more about Mrs. Oliphant..."

—Choice

0-312-51447-6 217 pp. $25.00

KING ARTHUR

Hero and Legend

Richard Barber. The first book to cover the entire development of the Arthurian legends, this volume offers a complete guide to the evolution of the legend from the historical Arthur of the eighth century to his impact on twentieth-century novelists. Barber gives a clear and readable outline of the medieval stories about Arthur in English, German, and French and also focuses on works of art inspired by the King Arthur legends. Illustrated.

0-312-45427-9 217 pp. $19.95

VICTORIAN SHIPPING, BUSINESS AND IMPERIAL POLICY

Donald Currie, the Castle Line and Southern Africa

Andrew Porter. Between 1860 and 1900 Donald Currie and the Castle Line lay at the heart of an expanding business empire embracing shipping, minerals, and real estate. Porter analyzes the connections between governments and commercial shipping interests, and the manipulation of each by businessmen and politicians. Using banking and shipping archives, private papers, and government records, he relates the growth of shipping between Britain and South Africa to the broader pattern of economic change, international competition, and imperial expansion.

0-312-84442-5 352 pp. $35.00

THE EXPLORER IN ENGLISH FICTION

Peter Knox-Shaw. This study, an original approach to the way novelistic treatments of terra incognita reflect crucial changes in cultural history examines the work of several major writers—principally Defoe, Melville, Conrad and Patrick White—who have used plots which focus on encounters with unfamiliar places and people in order to express widely differing views on the essence of human nature.

0-312-27763-6 250 pp. $27.50

POETRY OF THE GREAT WAR

An Anthology

Dominic Hibberd and John Onions, Editors. "The 184 selections of this splendid anthology are thematically divided into eight parts... 1914, Heroes, The Western Front, Christ and Nature, Civilians, Soldiers, Poets and Poetry in Wartime, 1918 and After, and Post-script... it features such topics as the tendency of previous such collections 'to reinforce one view or another' of the Great War, the corrective application here of exact chronology, the Georgian influence, the Romantic inheritance, and British 'prussianism'.... This is an immaculately crafted anthology with its wide and authoritative arrangement..."—Choice

0-312-61926-X 250 pp. $29.95

BRITISH AND IRISH POLITICAL DRAMA IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

Implicating the Audience

David Ian Rabey. "While some critics contend that all drama is political.... Rabey makes a distinction at the start between social drama and political drama.... He examines with broad knowledge and keen perception the works of half a hundred playwrights, the majority of them British but including many Irish writers in the Republic and in the North. The book covers the sweep of such drama in the 20th century and has a detailed examination of the newer voices that are being heard in the British Isles.... persons involved in the theater will welcome its stimulating, controversial presentation."—Boston Irish News

0-312-10030-2 237 pp. $27.50

St. Martin's Press

Scholarly and Reference Books • 175 Fifth Avenue • New York, NY 10010

The Records and Recollections of JAMES JENKINS

J. William Frost (ed.)

ISBN 0-88956-807-9

$79.95

"James Jenkins'...Records and Recollections... are a mine of information about English Quakers in the latter part of the 18th century...[A] great value...to students of Quakerism."

ALBION

"Jenkins derived solace amidst his troubles by writing and collecting 'objective' accounts of his pious contemporaries...a valuable addition to the published primary resources for this period."

CHURCH HISTORY

"James Jenkins in his notices of prominent Friends deceased does not pull his punches. In his sharp thumb-nail sketches he almost always includes a note of the physical appearance of the Friends concerned."

THE JOURNAL OF FRIENDS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"Much of the charm of this book grows out of a myriad of amusing anecdotes many of which pertain to the Aristocracy of Elders, about whom Jenkins was more indignant than tolerant. Jenkins...produces vivid and telling descriptions of sights, sounds, smells...a memorable book...astute, witty."

PENNSYLVANIA HISTORY

The Edwin Mellen Press

240 Portage Road Lewiston, New York 14092 (716) 754-2266

We invite proposals for monographs, bibliographies, and other texts for inclusion in the series Studies in British History. Please request your free manuscript proposal form from Paul Saito at the above address/phone.